Lost on Plateau For Two Nights

Two Victoria Boys Found After Rain And Wind Storm Mountain-climbing

Two 18-year-old Victoria boys lost on the Forbidden Plateau since Sunday were located by a police search party shortly after noon today, according to a radio message received by the provincial police at Courtenay and relayed to Victoria.

The boys, Anthony Oldfield, 798 St. Patrick Street, and Hugh Fletcher, 2129 Lorne Terrace, members of the forestry camp crew on the plateau, set off to scale 7,000-foot Mount Albert Edward Sunday morning at 8, and fears for their safety were expressed when fog rolled over the plateau, followed by a high south-east gale at 3.30 in the afternoon. The boys had only light lunches and no top clothing when they started. They had intended to be back at the forestry camp for supper Sunday night.

Under Constable J. Osmond, a search party started out at 5 this morning with a portable radio set and pack horses, but when they reached Mariwood Lake, 13 miles in from Forbidden Plateau Lodge they found the boys, according to the brief radio message to Sgt. Don Tweedhope at Courtenay. It was presumed they were unhurt, and none the worse for their two nights in the wilds.

Word they were missing reached Courtenay last night when guides came out from Mariwood Lake. A search party was immediately organized.

Cardinal's Body Rests in State

Thousands Mourn Passing of Patrick Hayes in New York City

NEW YORK (AP)—Bells in the twin spires of St. Patrick's Cathedral of Fifth Avenue tolled and flags hung at half-mast over New York City today as the body of Patrick Cardinal Hayes was returned for final rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

Five days of high funeral services, culminating in a solemn Pontifical mass of requiem on Friday were decreed by church dignitaries for the "cardinal of charity," who died Sunday evening at St. Joseph's, New York.

A crowd of 10,000 persons gathered outside the cardinal's home here and at the nearby cathedral from which for 19 years Cardinal Hayes directed the spiritual life of more than 1,000,000 Catholics in the world's richest Roman Catholic diocese.

The simple mahogany coffin was borne into the cathedral by six bearers, flanked by church dignitaries who accompanied the body from St. Joseph's.

Fires in Alberta

EDMONTON (CP)—Smouldering forest fires, hangers over from the blazes that swept through northern Alberta in June, blazed up in spots again during the past week and are threatening renewed outbreaks, officials of the Alberta department of forestry said today.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA 8 a.m. today—Blue reports are not available off the British Columbia coast, but pressure appears to remain high southwest of Vancouver. Cloudy cooler weather, prevails over the interior, while on the coast rain has been general. Thunder showers are reported in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Heaviest Rain In Five Months

Downpour Overnight Ends Prolonged Dry Spell; Heavy Rains Up-island

Victoria during the night experienced its heaviest fall of rain since Easter Sunday.

A total of .57 of an inch was recorded this morning at the Meteorological Observatory as having fallen from midnight to about 10 o'clock.

Easter Sunday the fall amounted to .82 of an inch.

Up-island points had heavy downpours of rain yesterday afternoon, but not until midnight did the rain commence in Victoria. It fell steadily throughout the night, reaching its peak about 4 this morning.

In the Jordan River and East Sooke districts there was heavy rain on Sunday afternoon. A few drops accompanied a magnificent rainbow over Victoria about 5 Sunday afternoon.

The week-end weather, however, was ideal in Victoria and immediate surroundings for the holiday. Yesterday, from 11 in the morning until about 2.30 in the afternoon the sun was quite hot and perfect for outdoor gatherings, which attracted large crowds of people. Many went to beaches and lakes for the last picnic parties of the year.

Victorians who returned this morning from Shawnigan Lake reported a torrential downpour of rain for several hours yesterday afternoon. Many persons breaking up camps and loading their cars with bedding and supplies were drenched.

All parts of the province experienced rain at the week-end, the forest fire situation being greatly relieved.

Japanese Fire on German Airliner

HONGKONG (AP)—A trimotored Junker transport plane of the German-Chinese Eurasia Line was attacked and forced down in Kwangsi province Monday by three Japanese pursuit planes.

None of the nine aboard, including two German officials of the line, was injured.

Reports received by line officials here said the three attacking planes appeared suddenly, dived at the transport craft with three bursts of machine gun fire, and then just as suddenly ceased firing and flew away.

Drivers' Failures

OTTAWA (CP)—Ten per cent of automobile drivers are afflicted with "night blindness," a sudden failure of vision with the approach of darkness, Dr. Ulysses Forget, Warren, R.I., said today in a paper delivered to the Association of French-speaking doctors of North America in convention here.

"If such people drive a car at night, without realizing their affliction, they are a menace both to themselves and others," he declared.

Sanctions Dropped

LONDON (CP-Havas)—Belgium, Sweden and the Netherlands tonight informed Great Britain they no longer consider themselves bound to apply automatic sanctions under article 16 of the League of Nations covenant.

The move was made in conformity with a decision announced last July at Copenhagen, when a conference of Europe's smaller powers upheld the right of individual nations to decide whether they should apply sanctions against aggressor nations.

The sanctions issue has been in the forefront of League problems ever since application of stringent measures by the Geneva body boycotting Italy failed to check the Rome government's conquest of Ethiopia.

Forest Fire Hazard Ended By Rains

VANCOUVER (CP)—Rain during the past few days has put the forest fire situation in British Columbia "well in hand," and no new outbreaks have been reported, according to the provincial forest branch office here.

FIRST DAY AT SCHOOL FOR SPORT AS WELL AS CHILDREN—It used to be Mary's little lamb that went to school, but this morning Sport would not leave his little mistress, Beverly Joan Fulton, 403 Wilson Street, and went into the classroom at Victoria West School. When the Times cameraman visited the school he found Sport resting between the desks of Beverly and Ronald Cameron Zarelli, 706 Wilson Street. In the lower picture Miss E. Wood, teacher, is shown interviewing parents who brought their children to school for the first time.

"Back to School We Go" May Send Alderman To Air Conference

Pupils Shopping for Books This Afternoon After Registering This Morning

The school supply shopping rush was on today as thousands of students in Greater Victoria thronged city stores to buy requisites for their year's studies, following opening of classes this morning.

With varying degrees of enthusiasm scholars set off to school this morning humming an adaptation of the Snow White song "Off to School We Go," this afternoon they hustled through downtown department stores and extended their trade to community centres as they assembled their needs.

For the first time in years, rain fell on the first day of school. Youngsters in from summer camps, scrubbed clean and outfitted for the year, donned overshoes and raincoats as they made their way to the different educational centres. In some cases, the downpours caught families ill-prepared and the complete registration in all divisions will not be known until tomorrow when late comers, some of whom were held back by the rain, report.

FEW TEARS

There were few children heart-broken over severance from mothers during the school hours.

"The children don't cry now. Some time ago there used to be a lot of tears shed by the little tots beginning school, but if there are any now they come chiefly from the eyes of mothers," one school principal reported.

In some instances the little ones refused to part with their pets, and dogs made their way to school with their masters and mistresses.

Following the policy adopted some time ago, the city school authorities are admitting any child whose sixth birthday falls on or before December 31 this year. There will be no registration of new pupils in the beginning class following the Christmas holidays.

While the extremely young marvelled at the new world opened to them through school, older boys and girls were busy recounting holiday adventures and preparing for the sports and extra curricular activity of the year.

Commencement exercises, at which diplomas and other scholarship awards are made to students successful in high school entrance examination last June will be held later in the month.

To discuss the problem faced by relief families whose children are inadequately equipped to attend school, the city relief committee was scheduled to meet this afternoon. Alderman S. H. Okell, chairman, expressed concern over the gravity of the condition for some families and voiced the opinion provision would be made for them in future years through social agencies.

Watch Kept On Jack Lake Fire

Heavy Rains Help Fighters Check Blaze in Kapoor Leased Territory

A gang from the Kapoor Lumber Company continued today to work on the smoldering remnants of a blaze which swept over a two-and-one-half-mile area from Jack Lake through nearly to the Goldstream Lake Road off the Kapoor Road, and threatened at one time to creep further among the Goldstream Lakes.

Aided by the heavy rains Sunday, yesterday and today, fire-fighters appeared to have the fire under control, but work was still being carried on to combat the spread of flames from the burned-over area.

The fire broke out Saturday afternoon as 10 men from the Kapoor camp started burning accumulated debris from Jack Lake. Sparks got away from the men and before they could check them had touched off an area of slash which burned beyond control.

As it swept around Jack Lake the fire completely destroyed the cabin of C. H. Topp, engineer engaged by the city to supervise the cleaning up of the lake by the Kapoor interests.

Loss figures were not available late today, but destruction was minimized owing to the fact much of the territory through which the flames spread had previously been logged off.

Among other things, the city lost its telephone line into the district. A bridge and logging road were saved.

Briton Killed By Franco Bombers

MADRID (AP)—A stoker aboard the 1,989-ton British freighter Marvia was killed today when the vessel was hit by three bombs and set afire during an insurgent air raid on the Spanish government port of Alicante.

Five Savoia (Italian-type) planes dropped more than 50 bombs. Ten persons were injured in Alicante, Mediterranean port south of Valencia.

Thefts in Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Safe-crackers were unsuccessful in several attempts on downtown business premises over the week-end, but burglars escaped with valuable loot from the homes of Walter Leek, exhibition association president, and Constable C. W. Macdonald of the city police force.

Mr. Leek reported a shotgun valued at $200 and a quantity of jewelry stolen from his home, while Constable Macdonald said a revolver, an automatic pistol and jewelry were missing from his home.

HENLEIN IN NUREMBERG

BERLIN (CP-Havas)—Konrad Henlein, Sudeten German leader, left Czechoslovakia for Nuremberg at noon today, the official German agency announced.

New Offer for Sudetens

Czechoslovakia's Proposals Expected To Be Accepted By German Minority As Negotiation Basis

LONDON (CP)—The Praha correspondent of Reuter's news agency reported from a "usually well-informed source" today an outline of the Czech government's new offer to its Sudeten German minority.

The agency said the offer approved by the cabinet Monday took the form of several "principles." These, it stated, are considered to satisfy the demand of the Sudeten negotiators for preliminary acceptance of their own principles prior to continuance of the talks about rights to autonomy.

The principles were listed as: 1. Recognition by Praha of territorial autonomy of the Sudeten German region of Czechoslovakia. 2. Recognition of full equality of Sudeten Germans in the Czechoslovak state. 3. Recognition of the equality of the German language as the

Alfonso's Son Bleeds to Death

Count of Covadonga Victim of Automobile Crash at Miami, Fla.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Count of Covadonga, 31, eldest son of former King Alfonso of Spain, bled to death today from cuts about the head suffered in an automobile accident.

He was riding in a machine driven by Miss Mildred Gaydon, 25, when the vehicle swerved from Biscayne Boulevard and struck a pole. The count suffered lacerations of the forehead and a possible fracture of the skull and his right leg was broken.

Miss Gaydon, a cigarette girl in a night club, was slightly bruised. She told officers she turned sharply to avoid a truck and lost control.

Hereditary hemophilia, which causes profuse bleeding from slight wounds, made it impossible for doctors to save the life of the former heir to the Spanish throne.

British Fleet Manoeuvring

Fifty Ships Start 10-Week Training Cruise in North Sea

LONDON (AP)—Fifty warships of the Home Fleet steamed out of Portsmouth and other bases today for a cruise of 10 weeks in the North Sea.

The 33,500-ton battleship Nelson, flagship of Admiral Sir Charles M. Forbes, fleet commander-in-chief, led the procession of fighting ships northward. Until November 17 the fleet will operate from its Great War bases, Invergordon, Rosyth and Scapa Flow—the last famous for the sinking there of Germany's war-time fleet. The rebuilt German navy began manoeuvres in another part of the North Sea August 26.

For the first time the fleet had with it the aircraft carrier Argosy, carrying radio-controlled "queen bee" planes, targets for actual anti-aircraft fire. Informal sources said anti-aircraft practice would form the principal problem of these manoeuvres.

The Admiralty announced a last-minute change in the program of the cruise—described as the usual annual fall exercises—to make sure that both the eastern and western approaches to the English Channel will be guarded during the next two weeks.

Admiral Sir Charles Forbes decided to send the battleship Royal Oak and the fourth destroyer flotilla to Portland, the naval station almost directly opposite Cherbourg, France.

The Admiralty said the change, for which Admiral Forbes was solely responsible, was made to give the Royal Oak a "shake-down" period following "a number of changes in personnel, including a new captain, C. Cantlie."

Economic Steps Not Advanced Enough for Test

NO WORD TO CZECHS

NUREMBERG, Germany (CP)—Chancellor Hitler ignored Czechoslovakia in his proclamation today to the 10th annual Nazi Congress, disappointing observers who had hoped for an inkling of Germany's intentions in central Europe.

Almost his whole 5,000-word proclamation dealt with the inner condition of Germany, particularly economically, which the Fuehrer assured his followers was so healthy the nation "will be without worries for food for years to come."

Hitler warned that Germany could no longer be brought to heel by an economic blockade such as that which reduced the nation to virtual starvation in the closing months of the Great War.

He hinted Germany was not yet economically ready for war and would not be until its production had been raised to higher levels.

"In a general manner, German economy is constructed in such a way that it can at any moment subsist independent of other countries. Henceforth the idea of blockading Germany may be buried as an absolute ineffective aim," he said.

SECURITY PROBLEM

"Above all, the supreme decision which guides our economic action will be the security of the nation before everything else. Its economic existence, on its own vital basis and in its own vital space, must therefore be fully and materially assured."

"Not until then will the German army be ready at all times to take the liberty and interests of the Reich under its strong protection. Then Germany will be extremely valuable for every one as a friend and ally."

"If I pronounce these words... I do it with the knowledge that politically and economically the era of Germany's isolation is past."

Through the voice of District Leader Adolf Wagner, who read the Fuehrer's proclamation in Congress Hall, Hitler repudiated any intention of forming a pact with foreign powers.

"I have never had nor have this intention," the Chancellor declared.

The statement was cheered thunderously.

NEW GERMANY

Instead, he declared he was offering the people a "greater Germany"—referring to the absorption last March 13 of Austria—and the nation of 6,500,000 Germans (of Austria) who today spiritually unite here "stronger than ever... in a great indissoluble community."

The absence of any word on Czechoslovakia undoubtedly was disappointing to the 45 foreign diplomats who had accepted Hitler's personal invitation to attend the congress.

Besides his brief denial of any intention of aligning Germany in a pact, the Chancellor's only allusions to foreign affairs were in evident reference to Italy's newly-begun anti-Jewish measures and a denunciation of the "international Jewish world enemy."

CALLED PEST

Hitler linked the "Jewish virus" with the "world pest" of Bolshevism.

"More threatening than ever, he said, 'the Bolshevik danger of the destruction of nations rises above this world.'"

With 21 Italian Fascists in the audience, headed by Roberto Farinacci, former secretary of the Fascist Party, the Fuehrer lauded the "mutual spiritual conception" which "leads us more and more humanely together."

The proclamation was the formal opening of the congress.

THE SIGHT THAT STARTLED FOREIGN OBSERVERS—One of the things Germany's enemies would have to worry about, should the present European crisis over Hitler's demands on Czechoslovakia develop into war, is Germany's possession of the four biggest pieces of mobile artillery anywhere. Two of the motor-driven 10-inch cannons are shown above as they appeared in public for the first time at the enormous military parade staged in Berlin during the recent visit of Admiral Horthy, Hungarian Regent. These guns are the modern successors to the famous "big berthas" of World War days.

by the "primitive National Socialist (Nazi) economic and currency policy which permits us, in a time of general currency swindles, to keep the value—that is the buying power—of the man mark stable..."

"While at the same time in democracies wages and prices chase each other in a wild fury as production declines steadily, National Socialist economic leadership shows a picture of continuous, increasing production and, thus, the picture of permanent growth of consumption and stable currency."

"World trade will not be revived," he said, "through seemingly learned but in reality meaningless phrases of democratic statesmen; it can only be aided through the putting in order of the slowly dying economic life of their own democracies."

From economics the Reichsfuehrer switched to his favorite theme, Bolshevism, for his concluding remarks. He said:

"More threatening than ever the Bolshevik danger of the destruction of nations rises above this world. A thousand-fold we see the activity of the Jewish virus in this world pest."

"I think I can say in my name and yours how deeply happy we are in the face of the fact that another great European power, out of its own experience, its own decision and on its own road shares the same conception and with admirable determination that has drawn the most far-reaching conclusions."

CARDINAL HAYES LED SIMPLE LIFE

Churchleader Whose Death Is Mourned Was Native of New York

Cardinal Hayes, whose death was mourned today, rose from being an orphan boy on "the sidewalks of New York" to become an archbishop and prince of the Catholic Church.

A handsome, white-haired man of modest girth, better than average height and unassuming dignity, he made a striking figure as, in his scarlet robes and beret, he reviewed Fifth Avenue's annual St. Patrick's Day parades from the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral. He was beloved by the large Catholic population he shepherded and congregations of more than 6,000 would crowd the cathedral whenever it was known that he was to celebrate high mass.

Since 1919 he headed the richest archdiocese in the world (in normal years New York contributes more to the Vatican than all of Europe). It includes several institutions of higher education, 452 churches, 1,575 priests, a Catholic population of 1,300,000 and church properties worth hundreds of millions of dollars.

In Roman Catholic countries of Europe the princely position of cardinal is emphasized with much pomp, but Cardinal Hayes continued the policy of his predecessors of adapting the position to democracy. He lived almost ascetically in the small stone episcopal residence under the rear eaves of the cathedral.

BORN IN NEW YORK

He was born near the foot of Manhattan Island in City Hall Place on November 20, 1867. At Smith live a few blocks to the east. In later years they became close friends.

The future cardinal's mother, Mary Gleeson Hayes, died when he was four and his father, Daniel Hayes, a truckman, a few years later.

When his mother died he went to live with an aunt and uncle, James and Ellen Egan, who kept a little grocery across the street from his birthplace. It was "Aunt Ellen" who decided he had a "vocation" and made the sacrifices to educate him.

He was sent to a Christian Brothers' school, the De La Salle Institute on Second Street. He became a chum there of George Mundelein who lived not far from his home. They both went to Manhattan College later. In 1924 they journeyed together to Rome to receive the red hats of the cardinalate from Pope Pius XI. Hayes then was archbishop of New York; Mundelein archbishop of Chicago.

When the United States entered the World War in 1917, Bishop Hayes became chaplain general, directing Roman Catholic chaplains in all services. He went to Washington, where he became a close and continued friend of the then Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Franklin D. Roosevelt.

An innovation by Archbishop Hayes in 1920 was establishment of the Catholic Charities Fund, which has since collected and distributed in the neighborhood of $20,000,000.

"I was born among the very poor people in the lower part of New York," the cardinal once said, "and my thought and love have always been with them."

Troops Man Maginot Line

By CHARLES S. FOLTE
Associated Press Foreign Staff
IN THE MAGINOT LINE, Northeastern France—Tens of thousands of troops and thousands of tons of military equipment arrived in northeastern France and vanished into the Maginot Line today.

France's border population talked of little else besides the calling to the colors of an estimated 300,000 reservists to "watch for trouble from over there."

"Over there," to Frenchmen in the Maginot Line, means the German side of the frontier where the new Siegfried Line was manned by Germany's crack troops.

NO MORE LEAVES

In the main streets of Metz, Verdun, Nancy and other Maginot zone centres there were fewer troops visible than usual. The answer was that all leaves were canceled and that the troops remained in the underground fortifications and garrisons of the Maginot zone.

Troop trains brought thousands to these centres, but most of them dropped off at tiny hamlets which are only dots on tourist maps but of vital importance on military maps.

"He—that means Adolf Hitler in the frontier zone—"would think a long time if he knew what waits under these fields," said an officer near the border.

The highways and byways of the Maginot area showed travelers who knew what to look for that France's northeastern frontier was on a war footing.

Whenever civilian motorists stop on the roads in certain regions armed soldiers suddenly appear from the middle of apparently deserted pastures and nervously ordered the travelers on.

"We want you only once," the soldiers say.

Sentries seen along the roads were a cross-section of the forces which France now has in the Maginot zone. There were bearded Algerians in dusty grey tunics, regular fortress troops in small blue uniforms and blue berets, all with gas masks in tin boxes at their hips; husky dark-skinned troops with khaki tunics; conscript soldiers in horizon blue uniforms; central African troops with red sashes around their waists, and tall, broad-shouldered Senegalese sharpshooters.

Kidnap Hunt In California Fails

MERCED, Calif. (AP)—Police Officer James Turner said he was convinced two men arrested here today for investigation had no connection with the kidnapping of Mrs. William R. Meeks.

It was said the men, when found, were driving an automobile without license plates, and neither had a driver's license.

MARYSVILLE, Calif. (AP)—The hunt for the kidnapers of Mrs. W. R. Meeks, who held the well-to-do rancher's wife captive for 56 hours but did not collect the $15,000 ransom, was speeded today, but two suspects were exonerated from any connection with the abduction.

Deputy district attorneys interviewed the two in their efforts to find the men who threatened the 55-year-old Mrs. Meeks during the time she was held, but reported they learned the men were innocent.

The officers said "the kidnappers' trail for the immediate present is cold."

The woman, nearly recovered from her experience, told how one captor, whose description she furnished, said "the boss" had ordered her slain.

It was on Sunday Mrs. Meeks returned home distraught and hungry after her ordeal.

Bert Foster, a trucking contractor, came on her walking along a road about 13 miles from her home, five miles north of Sheridan, a little town near which the Meeks orchard ranch is situated.

Foster told friends she inquired the way to Sheridan and that he took her home. He said she appeared nervous.

She told how the two abductors kept her at a hideout in a wooded spot.

One of the men left about Saturday noon, she was quoted as saying. About 5:30 p.m. the other man told Mrs. Meeks he was going away for a while, but that if she attempted to get away they would "blow her brains out."

The man disappeared, Cato said, and Mrs. Meeks stayed under her quilt for another 11 hours, meanwhile developing a severe nosebleed, before getting up enough courage to leave the hideout.

Near exhaustion, she left the place about 4:30 a.m. and made her way to the highway and was picked up by Foster.

Count Covadonga Suffered Long

Alfonso de Bourbon y Battenberg, one-time heir to the Spanish throne, who died at Miami, Fla., today after a motor car accident, suffered throughout his life from the Battenberg malady, hemophilia, a condition which causes its victims to bleed excessively from the slightest wounds. It was this which defeated the doctors today in their efforts to save him.

Throughout the years the disease circumscribed the prince's every activity and kept him almost continuously on the brink of death. Occurring only in the men of the Battenberg line—that of his mother, ex-Queen Victoria—it was transmitted by the women of the family to their sons through generation after generation. The women themselves were free from it.

Other ailments, some of which persisted because his hereditary malady prevented proper treatment for them, made the tall, slender, blond ex-crown prince frail and a cripple. A malignant tumor in one leg, which could not be relieved by surgery because the cut of a knife probably would be fatal, was the cause of an especially serious illness at Havana in February, 1936. Twenty blood transfusions saved him that time.

It was in a Swiss sanitarium in 1932 that he met and wooed

the beautiful Edelmira Sampedro-Ocejo y Robato, daughter of a wealthy Havana merchant. Both were there for treatment and this fact, coupled with her status as a commoner, accented the opposition of Ex-King Alfonso, the young man's father, to the match.

Despite this refusal of consent, they were married June 23, the prince renouncing his right to the throne.

After the wedding, the father made a gesture of forgiveness. He granted to his son the title of Count of Covadonga in exchange for that of Prince of the Asturias, which belonged to heirs to the Spanish throne. The ex-king also allowed his son to retain the right to be addressed as "royal highness" and settled on him a monthly allowance of 17,200 francs, then equivalent to about $1,150.

But the family breach was not healed for the ex-monarch refused to receive his daughter-in-law. In 1934, when a quarrel over family affairs separated the couple, the

BRITISH FOREIGN POLICY CRITICIZED

Trades Union Congress Hears Its President Score Government's Course

BLACKPOOL, Eng. (AP)—The Trades Union Congress unanimously adopted a resolution yesterday urging that the government prevent foreign firms in Great Britain from "evading their industrial responsibilities."

A charge was made that in many cases foreign firms "flout every custom and tradition which have been won by British workers."

H. H. Elvin, president of the congress, made the opening address of the six-day meeting. He assailed British foreign policy, which he said "allowed the prestige of the British Empire to sink to its lowest level during the past 100 years..." and asserted that Czechoslovakia "must not be thrown to the wolves."

Capt. W. H. Coombs of the Navigators' and Engineer Officers' Union asserted foreigners formed shipping companies which operated from London and received "the protection of the British flag for their ships, but send poorly paid men to sea in ships which are in a disgraceful and unseaworthy condition."

Italy's Grain Crop Will Fill Needs

ROME (AP)—Italy has won this year's "battle of the grain."

Franco Savorgnan, president of the Central Statistics Institute, told Premier Mussolini yesterday late estimates showed the nation's grain crop would be about 80,000,000 quintals (292,500,000 bushels).

This was the amount government officials calculated would fill the country's needs, and represented a sharp increase over the 70,000,000 quintals (256,000,000 bushels) previously forecast for 1938.

Moccasins, Arrow Points and Other Objects Found in Caves in Oregon

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Carnegie Institution announced yesterday its scientists had found new evidence that man lived in North America during the time of terrific volcanic activity, near the end of the last ice age.

An expedition exploring caves in southern Oregon found unmistakable evidence of human beings having lived in them during several periods of volcanic eruption, the announcement said.

Earliest occupation of these ancient homes probably was more than 10,000 years ago, it added, or approximately the time when the ice cap, which once covered most of North America, was beginning to recede.

The caves are at Roaring Springs Ranch, about 100 miles south of Burns, Ore. All were formed by the action of waves of the lakes in those regions when the water level was many feet higher than at present.

Dr. L. S. Cressman of the University of Oregon and Dr. Howell Williams of the University of California, who led the expedition, reported to the institution they had found shoes and moccasins, spear and arrow points, a crude bow, baskets and two throwing sticks, similar to those still used by some primitive natives to hurl spears.

2 Drownings Mar Holiday in B.C.

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two drownings and concern for the occupants of an abandoned launch who were later found safe ashore, marred British Columbia's Labor Day week-end.

Harry Fisher drowned in Gun Lake, near Gold Bridge, 100 miles north of Vancouver, Sunday when he fell from a float.

Norman Wilson, member of Vancouver's Jokers Hiking Club, was the victim of a boat capsized on Cultus Lake, near Chilliwack. Two companions, Sue Ward and Aldo Corra, both of Vancouver, survived the accident.

ONTARIO HOLD-UP

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Walter James of Windsor told police last night that two men had kidnapped him a few hours earlier, forced him to drive them to Leamington, 33 miles away, then stole $3 from him at gunpoint. James said he was about to get out of his car at a street intersection when the men ordered him back in and told him to drive them. He said one had a revolver.

Labor Day Sets Tourist Record

WINNIPEG (CP)—With a hint of winter in the air in some parts, Canadians yesterday took advantage of the last of the summer holidays to celebrate Labor Day out of doors and in traditional ways. Also observed in the United States, the holiday week-end saw thousands of American tourists driving on the highways of the Dominion. Border points reported record traffic.

One of the largest gatherings was at Toronto, where labor leaders of Canada, Great Britain and the United States participated in the Canadian National Exhibition's Labor Day demonstration. Members of more than 50 unions marched in the parade, and a baby show attracted 2,000 entries.

Hamilton put on the oddest demonstration with rival labor factions each celebrating. The events sponsored by the American Federation of Labor group were about as well patronized as those held under auspices of the Trades and Labor Congress faction.

Sports events were the feature at most Ontario celebrations, softball and baseball games predominating, but in western Canada football has started its autumn reign. Night games were played in Winnipeg and Regina.

Chief feature of Manitoba's celebration was the bi-centennial observance of the arrival of La Verendrye at the forks of the Red and Assiniboine Rivers.

Nazi Putsch In Chile Fails

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—A Chilean Nazi Putsch died yesterday before a hail of Federal police bullets, hand grenades and machine gun, artillery and tank fire.

For more than three hours the centre of Santiago was kept in turmoil after Chilean Nazis, who wear brown overalls as uniform, seized the National University, which faces the presidential palace, and the 10-story Workers' Insurance Building, which commands the palace at the rear.

But three and a half hours after the carabinieri—federal police—had swung into action with their heavy weapons it was all over, despite the blaze of fire from small arms which the Nazis let loose.

After the putting down of the Nazi adventure, which carabinieri officers termed "mad," because it lacked numerical strength and military support, the results were:

Unofficial sources said 87 persons were killed, although the only officially announced death was that of one carabiniere. Nineteen police were wounded.

More than 80 Nazis were under arrest after running up the white flag over the two buildings.

General Carlos Ibanez, a candidate in the elections October 25 to succeed President Arturo Alessandri and with whose candidacy the Nazi putsch was believed connected, was under arrest.

Also under arrest was his chief aide, Col. Tobias Barros, whom President Alessandri cashiered last January.

An order for the arrest of Jorge Gonzalez von Maree, leader of the Nazis and the only Nazi deputy in the national chamber, had been issued.

The putsch, discovered prematurely, neared its end when the carabinieri had a 75 millimetre field piece set up on the tree-lined Avenida Alameda de Las Delicias.

Guns fired two shells which battered down the main doors to the university. The Nazis hoisted the white flag as the federal police—all picked men and army veterans—aided by tanks and supporting fire dashed across the square and into the building. Fifty Nazi youths, many of them wounded, were arrested inside.

The outbreak occurred after the putschists, wearing civilian clothes and carrying concealed weapons, had infiltrated into the university and insurance building. A putschist incautiously displayed his revolver, however, and a woman gave the alarm. A policeman was shot dead when he attempted to arrest the weapon carrier and soon the shooting was general.

Gen. Ibanez, who was elected president in July, 1927, was overthrown four years later. He is supported by his own party, "Alianza Popular Libertadora," Nazis and a dissident group of Socialists. He also has enjoyed considerable popularity among army officers. The party has no direct known affiliation with Germany.

The government today asked a free hand for six months. While a state of siege, a form of martial law, was declared, a military announcement said the situation was well in hand and it was not necessary to enforce the restrictions fully.

Veteran Killed in Parachute Failure

ROANOKE, Ill. (AP)—Edward Ray, 61, of Terre Haute, Ind., lost a three-parachute parlay against death yesterday.

He leaped from a gas-filled balloon with three parachutes in a "triple jump" exhibition. The first chute opened and he let go of it, the second opened and he released it, but the third failed to open and he fell to the ground from about 1,000 feet.

Some 3,000 spectators saw the plunge.

Vancouver Trio to Hitch-hike Home

HALIFAX (CP)—Three Vancouver hitch-hikers limbered up their thumbs today for a long trek home after a 17-day visit in Nova Scotia.

The British Columbia trio hitch-hiked their way here almost three weeks ago.

Drowned

CHICAGO (AP)—The Labor Day week-end death toll in the United States this year climbed to 396, a survey showed today, as compared with 391 for the 1937 week-end.

Jammed highways and bathing resorts accounted for most of the tragedies, but the automobile was by far the greatest single death-dealer. At least 278 persons were killed in motor car mishaps, 44 were drowned.

The figures also included 18 suicides, 11 homicides and 45 miscellaneous fatalities. California and Ohio, with 33 deaths each, led the grim parade. Ohio alone had 30 auto fatalities. There were 32 violent deaths in New York State, 29 in Michigan and 23 in Illinois.

Germans in Calgary Hear Their Consul

CALGARY (CP)—Wilhelm Rodde, German consul for western Canada, told the Calgary branch of the Canadian Society for German Culture last night the "greatest service that German-Canadians can render to the fatherland is to be good Canadian citizens."

The platform was decorated with a Union Jack flanked by two red banners bearing the Nazi swastika. On one banner the swastika was superimposed on the maple leaf, banner of the Canadian Society for German Culture. The other flag was the German flag in honor of the visit of the German consul.

During the meeting a few of those present gave the Nazi salute and on one occasion shouted "Heil, Heil, Heik"

and 2,000 Houses at Takaoka Burn

TOKIO (AP)—Fire and floods swept central Japan Tuesday in the wake of a 97-mile-an-hour typhoon which left possibly 100 dead and destroyed property over a wide area.

Fire broke out in the city of Takaoka, at the base of Noto Peninsula, and levelled more than 2,000 dwellings, public buildings and schools. Osaka reported 15,000 homes were flooded during the storm Sunday and Monday. At Kobe 31 ships were sunk or damaged.

A typhoon of lesser intensity last Thursday caused at least 175 deaths in the Tokio-Yokohama area.

Many residents of Kobe fled to high ground, fearing a repetition of the July floods in which hundreds were drowned.

Labor Peace Appeal In United States

WASHINGTON (AP)—Miss Frances Perkins, United States Secretary of Labor, observed Labor Day with an appeal for peace between the American Federation of Labor and John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization.

The effect of the Secretary's appeal could not be measured immediately, but in Labor Day statements and addresses prior to her talk neither the A.F.L. nor the C.I.O. showed any sign of giving ground.

NICKEL GIVES STRENGTH AND TOUGHNESS TO A 25¢ SPANNER OR A 1500 TON HYDRAULIC PRESS

TODAY, if you were at the Sudbury Mines, you would see eleven-ton buckets of Nickel ore being hoisted to the surface from the depths of the earth. Tomorrow you might purchase a spanner, a screw driver or a pipe wrench containing some of that same Nickel. For Nickel is being alloyed with steel to make tools tougher, harder, stronger—but lighter in weight. In a pair of pliers or a giant lathe, Canadian Nickel prevents breakage.

The world over, makers of machinery and equipment are using Nickel Alloys. In the gold mines of New Guinea, in the San Francisco Oakland Bridge, in the tin-mining dredges of Malaya or in Egypt's Aswan Dam, Nickel is doing its part in checking breakage and corrosion. In such small things too as the keys of a clarinet or a delicate surgical instrument, Nickel finds an important place.

Canada's Nickel mines must keep pace with the world demand. That is why new millions are being spent each year in Canada for new equipment, machinery and supplies to mine and refine still more Nickel. Canada's world market for Nickel must be retained.

Today in Nuremberg

IN THE ANCIENT BAVARIAN CITY OF Nuremberg today, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler met thousands of his stalwarts on the occasion of Nazidom's 10th annual congress, to which more than two-score foreign diplomats had been invited. But the one subject in which the world at large is most directly interested was completely ignored. The Nazi chieftain evidently could find no room in his 5,000-word address for an inkling of his designs on Czechoslovakia. This omission may be taken to mean that either Greater Germany is not ready to force the issue or that the Hitler-Goering-Gobbel's triumvirate is now convinced of the stupidity of staking a desire for still wider power in Europe on the results of its record to date.

Denied the opportunity—by choice or by the pressure of external developments—of discussing future policy in connection with Czechoslovakia, Herr Hitler gave full rein to a dissertation on Germany's economic health, its present condition and its prospect of continued growth in strength. For the time being, then, the outside world can consider this part of the Nuremberg declaration:

"In a general manner, German economy is constructed in such a way that it can at any moment subsist independent of other countries. Henceforth the idea of blockading Germany may be buried as an absolutely ineffective aim. Above all, the supreme decision which guides our economic action will be the security of the nation before everything else. Its economic existence, on its own vital basis and in its own vital space must therefore be fully and materially assured. Not until then, will the German army be ready at all times to take the liberty and interests of the Reich under its strong protection. Then Germany will be extremely valuable for everyone as a friend and ally."

The Reichsfuehrer concluded this part of his peroration with the statement that he pronounced "these words" with the knowledge that politically and economically "the era of Germany's isolation is past." Of his belief in this, of course, nobody will complain. The people of what is now Greater Germany have the right to look to their own economic fences. It is beside the point to speculate upon the percentage of the people who are really satisfied with their present form of government. It is to the point, however, to suggest that the great majority of the German people hate war just as much as the people of Canada hate it.

Stripped of all its verbal garnishings, Reichsfuehrer Hitler said nothing today in his written declaration that was either new or novel. It was somewhat refreshing, however, for its absence of anything especially Pharisaical. The philosophy of Mein Kampf obviously remains his guiding spirit. Germany will be "extremely valuable for everyone as a friend and ally" when the head of the Reich thinks she is sufficiently strong militarily to subdue any other nation or collection of nations which may choose to challenge her. And if he is able to extract satisfaction from his belief that destiny called him to deliver his people from their "bondage," there will be no general disposition to deny him that satisfaction. His imperial predecessor prided himself on his alliance with the Most High. He ran away from his people in the end.

The head of the Third Reich will remain in his present position only so long as he does not permit his ambition to outdistance his better judgment. He can be a "friend and ally" to other nations if he will—as gradually as his ego will allow—bring himself to realize that the democracy he loses no opportunity of upbraiding will still prevail long after his experiment with a highly-intelligent and peace-loving people has been tossed into the limbo of forgotten things.

Arboreal Longevity

HONORS FOR GREATEST AGE AMONG living things are rewarded to the big trees of the Pacific coast of this continent in a summer study of the late Dr. Hans Molisch, formerly director of the Institute of Plant Physiology, University of Vienna. Dr. Molisch's book has just been translated and published in English by Edmund H. Fulling, editor of the Botanical Review.

The only close competitor of California's particular Big Trees in the Redwoods for record length of life, in Dr. Molisch's tabulation, is the baobab tree of Africa, which is given an estimated age of 5,000 years. However, this is only an estimate, whereas the equal age of the Big Tree is backed up by actual counts of annual rings in the trunk.

Next in line come the banyan of India, sacred for having sheltered the Buddha. The identical tree under which Gautama sat when inspiration came to him is still pointed out, and since it has been a holy place during all the centuries, it is quite probable that the tradition is accurate, so that the estimated 3,000-year age of the "bo-tree" is well supported.

Not so well fares the giant cypress of Tule, in Mexico, at which stout Cortez paraded, and which the famous German traveler, Von Humboldt, estimated to be 4,000 years old. "Comparative estimates have indicated, however, that this swamp cypress can scarcely be more than 2,000 years old," says Dr. Molisch; "further proof that estimates alone easily lead to inaccuracies and exaggerations."

Even more drastic scaling-down in estimates had to be made for the age of the great dragon-trees of the Canary Islands, likewise claimed to be the world's oldest. Dr. A. Putter, who studied these trees critically shortly after the World War, would grant the oldest of them no more than 185 years. The claims of 5,000 or 6,000 years, advanced by natives for their trees, Dr. Putter dismissed as trivial, because the same natives "not infrequently do not know their own ages nor those of their children."

For Intellectual Freedom

MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE actual discoveries and inventions being made is the preservation of the right to engage in research. For several years the intellectual world has been shocked and disturbed by repeated instances of eminent men of learning forced to leave their work because of intolerance of governments to race, politics, religion or other special viewpoints.

This has brought forth many protests, among them declarations of the British and American Associations for the Advancement of Science, the Rockefeller Foundation. In England, the journal Nature has editorialized persistently in its efforts to arouse the scientists to impending danger. It said in a recent issue:

"If science and learning are to regain everywhere the immunity from interference or persecution to which they have been regarded as entitled in all civilized communities for several centuries, it will not be by the efforts of a minority of scientific workers."

"Science will only be re-established in its unique place among the interests of mankind when scientific workers everywhere recognize their responsibilities and are prepared to make fresh sacrifices in the cause of intellectual freedom. They must educate their fellow citizens to the realization that science is a common interest of mankind, and that whatever may be the barriers or the difficulties or the struggles between them, civilized societies must accord a certain immunity and tolerance to those engaged in scientific discovery and learning."

We may add that there must be widespread recognition by scientific workers of the normal conditions of tolerance and immunity for scientific pursuits in a civilized state. These restraints—not to meddle with or be dominated by divinity, morals, politics or rhetoric—must be clearly understood and firmly accepted by scientific workers. The loyal acceptance of such a code of ethics or discipline is all the more important today, not only if objective research in the social sciences is to be pursued, but also if what is often termed the frustration of science is to be overcome.

The Sun's New Chief

PRACTICAL NEWSPAPER MEN throughout the Dominion will congratulate Mr. Roy W. Brown on his decision to resume his journalistic activities in the city in which he is so well and favorably known. After nearly 30 years with the Vancouver Daily Province, latterly as its editor until he resigned a few months ago, he has accepted an invitation from the Vancouver Sun to become its editorial and news director.

It was suggested that Mr. Brown would enjoy his well-earned retirement by attending to the mechanics of his farm, with an occasional fishing interlude, but those of us who have been privileged to know him for many years could not conceive of him completely relinquishing the customs and associations of years for the role of "country gentleman." With all its exactions, and every conscientious journalist is familiar with them—there is something about the atmosphere and excitement of a newspaper office which fires the imagination and stimulates the mind.

It is not necessary for us to tell the Sun that it has added a tower of strength to its editorial personnel by acquiring the services and wide knowledge of Roy Brown.

The most delicious viands are ruined if served wrong. A watermelon should be cooled in the creek and broken on a rock.

Pancakes fried in castor oil make a favorite dish in Kwillingok, Alaska. The rumor is that the town was named after the exclamation the first visitor made when he heard about it.

WAR HEROES—POST-WAR

From Portland Oregonian

A wirephoto shows Jacob von Wiegand, a German war ace credited with bringing down 22 allied airmen, shoveling dirt on a New Jersey WPA job. That photograph is in effect an essay on how dictators are made. Corporal Hitler, Captain Goering and the late Captain Roehm—the three men most directly responsible for the Nazi seizure of power in Germany—were other "heroes" who were thrown without preparation into civilian life and couldn't make the grade. Hitler never held a full-time job until he got the job of Reichsfuehrer. He and his fellows were trained in bloodshed and unrest, and offered German WPA work. They grew angry and started campaigning, and the German people finally accepted their madness.

We know nothing of this Von Wiegand. He may be incompetent or merely unfortunate. But this at least is clear, that he works on the WPA and Hitler rules an empire because of a difference of character. They both had the same provocation—the provocation of a training in blood, and then a shovel. The nations cannot continue to so handle men, and survive.

BAD NEWS

WELL, I'm back, and this is bad news for all of us; especially for me, because it is much more comfortable in our lake, even though the water is getting cold, than it is in this space.

A lot of people have inquired where I have been all this time and, rather hopefully, have asked me whether I wasn't going to stay away altogether. Well, I have been in the woods and at the recent Liberal Party convention, but I won't be unkind enough to the politicians to say which I preferred more. I wonder if you have ever been at a political convention? If not, don't, because they are never as exciting as they sound in the newspapers, and the opportunities for getting plastered aren't half as extensive as you might imagine. Politics is too sober nowadays.

Of course, all provincial party conventions are bound to be an anti-climax after the Kamloops convention of 1926, when good old Doc Toimie was chosen Conservative leader. Probably we shall never see the like of that again—the repeated ballots, the days of deadlock, the screaming and maneuvering, the bedroom conferences, the look on the Doctor's face when they sprang the leadership on him unawares, just as the Conservative Party was about to blow up and go home in small particles.

The Kelowna affair wasn't exciting like that, and if you didn't understand the art of government and the curious inner workings of the democratic system, you would have been a little alarmed. You would have observed that the average delegate to a political convention has no idea what it's all about and votes accordingly. A resolutions committee cuts and dries everything, and the convention gulps it down like a hungry cow at the manger. Clearly, a few men run our politics for us and, in the strict Athenian sense, we have no democracy at all, because our modern Demos can't be bothered governing. This is lucky because the public is quite incapable of governing and is fortunate in having a few trained men who know how to do the job out of a long experience. And also know how to make the public think it is doing the whole thing itself. This is a two-horse equestrian art requiring a rare skill.

FROM THE BACK

AND YET, THOUGH the great body of the electorate, and most of a political convention, are entirely in the dark on the business of government, it is amazing to see in what obscure and unlikely places a real knowledge of government may exist. At Kelowna, now and then, some unknown fellow from Burnaby or Saanich would jump up at the back of the hall and make an argument on some question, like health insurance, much more cogent than any you'd be likely to hear in the Legislature. Usually he'd have an Old Country accent, because it is over there that your politicians are trained young, and working men take public affairs mighty seriously.

Still, it is surprising to see how you men in British Columbia are getting interested in public affairs. A few years ago you'd hardly ever see a man under 30 at a convention. At Kelowna some of the best work was done by men in their thirties. Our own Alan Chambers was one of the most useful and important men there.

I was talking about this aspect of politics to Mrs. Noggins today and she said she didn't hold with it.

"A young feller," Mrs. Noggins said, "ortanter 'ave no interest in politics. He orter be thinkin' about gels. When you see a young feller goin' out and makin' speeches about the govern'mint instead of makin' eyes at some female, then you begin to mistrust 'im. It ain't nacheral or wholesome. It's all right to go into politics, like I said to my boy Alf, when you're too old to enjoy yourself, but you orter 'ave yer fling first. If I was a gel, I'd never marry a young feller as was runnin' around makin' speeches instead of runnin' around with the gels, because 'e'd be sure to bust out later on, you know. It's a lot better to marry a feller as starts takin' an interest in 'is country's business when 'e's 40, than a feller who's got tired of all that and starts takin' an interest in flappers. Like I said to Alf, you can depend upon it, boy, I said, that a young feller in 'is twenties as starts monkeyin' with politics will come to no good and if I was you, I said, I'd stick to my plumbin' until your mind begins to fail, like. It'll be plenty of time to go into politics when you can't hinstall a bathroom set any more, I said."

TROUBLED WATERS

MRS. NOGGINS, OF COURSE, is notoriously prejudiced against politicians and in favor of bathrooms, but it seemed to me at Kelowna that the young men who were interested in politics were the cleanest-cut lads I had seen in a long time; not fat, white, sloppy, bookish youths that you picture as embryonic politicians, but athletic lads, many of them farmers, who know what the struggle of life is. In a few years these boys, or others like them in other parties, will be running this country. One of them will be premier, some boy whose name we have never heard. And these boys will do as they please, will do many things highly disagreeable to us, for things are moving, much faster than we sometimes think; fast enough to terrify the older practitioners of the art of politics.

Coming home from Kelowna the other day, I stood on the deck of the Vancouver boat with a leading statesman of British Columbia. He pointed to Trial Island, where a heavy tide rip was flowing. "Suppose," said he, "that this is the Ship of State. If you asked most of the passengers how we should go to get into the Inner Harbor they'd tell you to sail in there between Trial Island and the shore because it's shorter and quicker. And we'd be sure to be wrecked." He sighed heavily as one who knows how hard it is to keep the Ship of State off the rocks these days.

An Empire in Decline

From Financial News

In the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post appears an article recording the magnificence of the "empire" of William Randolph Hearst and the imminence of its break-up as gradual liquidation precedes succession duties.

Hearst, extraordinary newspaper publisher, having a greater publishing business than any man in history, not excepting the late Lord Northcliffe, lavished millions upon luxurious properties for the use of himself and his friends. He has lived regally. He has spent extravagantly and gloriously. His imprint he has left lastingly upon American journalism; indeed, he affected journalism in England and Canada.

But the great wealth which fate gave to him in trust will slip from his hands and be dissipated. Doubtless his newspapers will pass to other hands than those of his estate. A few score years hence his magnificent homes, rivaling those of any potentate who ever lived, will be merely monuments to a vanity that has gone with the years.

The judgment of posterity will be that this man, with so many elements of greatness about him with such a sweeping imagination and such a capability for planning on a grand scale, failed to contribute much that he might have done to the lasting welfare of his countrymen.

Between men like Rockefeller and Ford, with their practical ideals and their maintenance of contact with common things of life, especially in their own lives, and men like Hearst who throw away millions on follies, there is a vast difference. It is a pity when, with the ability to amass great wealth, there is not the companion competence to use it constructively so that, through its owner's administration, it will do the greatest good for the greatest number.

The story of such squandering as Hearst has engaged in is not pleasant reading. It mars his unique record as a publisher. And it helps to make radicals among those who are in want or are conscious of the existence of great want around them while the possessor of immense wealth spends his millions, not for medical research, not for education, not for science, not for better housing, and not for relief of distress, but for aping the glories of a deservedly vanished European splendor indulged in by the royalty and aristocracy of past generations.

WORD FROM YUKON

To the Editor:—I have just received clippings from newspapers regarding Premier Hepburn's flight from here on July 28 and would like to inform Ben Smith, one of the party, that if he knew anything whereof he spoke he might have thought twice before commenting on the attempt of Whitehorse to get a little publicity, as he puts it. Apparently his conceptions of communication systems in the Yukon are very rudimentary and if he finds himself at such a loss when deprived of 24-hour telephone service I would advise him to stick to Wall Street where he will have it at his finger tips.

Being operator on the Whitehorse radio station I offered the party all the assistance possible by the way of radio contact until they finally returned to Carcross after venturing as far as Taku on their way to Juneau. The following morning I notified the government telegraph system, the only line communication to the outside and advised them of the plane's landing at Carcross. I also contacted Juneau at 10 a.m. (Yukon standard time) and told the station there also, which as far as I was concerned, was all that could be done. There was no fuss in these parts and it was not until the following night when listening to the news broadcast from KNX, Hollywood, that I was even aware of the grave concern held regarding the party and of word finally coming through of their safe landing in Carcross.

In my opinion Mr. Smith's remarks were entirely uncalled for and to say the least show little appreciation of the service rendered the party. Being from Ontario myself I was pleased to read of Mr. Hepburn's refusal to make any fuss towards publicity.

EVERY TOWN ITS MOTOR CAR!

From Kincardine News

Thirty years ago the editor of the Walkerton Telescope sharpened his quill and gave his readers this hot-shot: "In Kincardine one day last week an automobile frightened a horse, the horse ran away, the driver was thrown out of the rig and his leg was broken. It is becoming apparent from incidents like this that something will have to be done about these automobiles. For several years past the farmers in the vicinity of Toronto have been agitating for a law to restrain automobiles from using the public highways, have more than one. The machine so far have not been able to accomplish anything. And then the editor gets real mad. "Gradually," according to this 1908 issue of the Telescope, "the nuisance is becoming more general. Every town in the province has its automobile now and some of them

Claims Law Restrictive

Regulations Governing Sale of Liquor in Quebec Lived Up to By Citizen and Tourist Alike, Says Sir Edward Beatty; Steamship Plans

"Tourist travel must be encouraged and it strikes me as somewhat anomalous that all the provinces are spending large amounts of money to improve their highways to induce tourist travel by motor, but, with the exception of the province of Quebec, our liquor laws are so restrictive that American tourists often leave the country dissatisfied," said Sir Edward Beatty, K.C., president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, discussing Canada's biggest industry, the tourist industry, during his week-end visit to Victoria.

"It may be of course claimed," Sir Edward added, "that we should not alter our laws to conform to those in the United States, but it is not necessary that we should do more than loosen them in some respects which would enable visitors to the country to enjoy privileges not very dissimilar to those which they possess in their own country. The Quebec liquor law, so far as I am aware, operates very effectively and respect for it is shown by the manner in which its provisions are lived up to by citizens and visitors alike."

Efforts have been made in British Columbia to have the liquor regulations modified to permit the sale of beer and light wines in hotels.

As the directing head of the Canadian Pacific, the largest private transportation concern in the world, Sir Edward is naturally interested in the development of the tourist industry.

"It is difficult for anyone not to believe in the future of Canada, and even though there may be many problems to be grappled with and solved, I am one of those who are more convinced than ever that the country will reach, without undue delay, conditions of real prosperity," he said.

"The only reservation I would make, which might effect the speed and permanency of our return to prosperous conditions, would rest in those factors which are beyond our control, such as the industrial and economic situation in the United States as well as abroad, or the outbreak of war."

"I am naturally very heartened by this fall's conditions on the prairies, which will have an inevitable beneficial effect upon the situation in British Columbia and in the east."

UNIFICATION

Sir Edward Beatty's views on unification of Canada's transportation systems are well known, but he struck a new note on the subject while in Victoria.

He said: "I have nothing further to add to what I have already said on the subject of unification, save that it appears to be increasingly recognized throughout Canada that our unsatisfactory railway situation should not be allowed to drift. Canada cannot afford the annual transportation losses now being incurred and the objections urged to unified management are purely political in character. They have little bearing on the merits of the proposals which are obvious to all of those who have studied the problem and who have the interests of the country at heart. If I felt that any of the results claimed by those opposed to unification were even remotely possible, I would not be in favor of it. The facts are, however, that it can be accomplished with difficulty and without disadvantage to labor, to the communities served or to the general public. In less than 10 years Canada would have solvent and more efficient railways, and would be able to keep in step with modern transportation improvements without undue burden on its citizens."

NEW TONNAGE

When the rearmament program has been completed and the shipbuilding yards of Great Britain have slackened to the point where the builders will be inclined to scale down construction costs, and that may be next year, the proposed new passenger tonnage for the Canadian-Australasian service will be built, said the C.P.R. president.

"The Canadian Pacific and the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand jointly own the Canadian-Australasian Line," he said. "The latter company is prepared, with the assistance of the Imperial and Dominion governments, on terms already agreed to, to construct and put into operation two new modern, fast liners to trade between Vancouver, Victoria, New Zealand and Australia. Under the terms of the agreement the steamship company must submit, with its recommendation for approval, plans, specifications and costs of the new tonnage; but when the tenders were received it was found that the last named exceeded the estimate of a year ago by over 25 per cent. The company, therefore, advised the government concerned that they could not recommend the construction of tonnage at these costs, which were considered to be uneconomical."

GOLDEN GATE CALL

Questioned about the proposed call by the new liners at San Francisco, Sir Edward said: "The company will not make San Francisco a port of call in the case of the Canadian-Australasian service until the new tonnage is in commission. . . . the reason being that it will require vessels of the speed of the proposed new ships

FALL FAIR DRAWS 17,000 ENTRIES

"For the sixth consecutive year new records are being established by the British Columbia Agricultural Association, and the seventy-seventh annual fair to be held, starting next Saturday, will be the most outstanding in the history of the association," W. H. Mearns said today in announcing new attractions secured for fair week.

"Never before have we had so many entries in the various departments. Our livestock classes have surpassed all previous records, and I have no doubt that when all the entries have been tabulated in those departments where entries close today, that there, too, we will find a substantial increase. We fully expect to exceed the 17,000 entries, which established a new record last year," Mr. Mearns stated.

The Browning Amusement Company has been engaged again this year to provide fun on the midway. They are bringing a merry-go-round, tilt-a-whirl, ferris wheel, two new auto car rides, scaplane, glider, and an entirely new thrill ride that has not been introduced here before.

In addition to the various game booths on the midway, there will be the nightly rodeo performance in the horseshow building, to which will be added the thrilling four and six-horse team contests, and competitive attractions in the saddle-horse classes. A band will be in attendance each night at the horse show, while another band will provide music on the fair grounds during the day.

In the motion picture building, the public will be afforded an opportunity of witnessing Victorian undergirding screen tests. Already many entries have been received for these free tests. All applications must be in writing, and sent to Reginald Hincks, casting director of Central Films Limited, Willows.

Owing to the fact that the official opening will take place at 3 o'clock next Saturday afternoon, all merchants exhibiting in the Industrial, Manufacturers', Women's and other buildings are urged to have their stalls in place not later than Friday so that everything will be in readiness for the public, Mr. Mearns stated.

BOWLERS MEET

The Lumbermen's Five-pin Bowling League will meet on Friday at 8 in the Olympic Bowling Alleys, Yates Street, to make arrangements for league play which starts on Friday evening, September 16, at 7. All lumbermen interested in bowling are requested to attend.

to make the call without disadvantage to the main trade route to Australia."

With regard to proposed new tonnage for the B.C. Orient service, Sir Edward said: "The question of the replacement of the Empress of Russia and Empress of Asia does not require immediate decision, but it is expected that, if at all possible, a decision will be reached in 1939. Here, again, the company's plans may be changed, unless costs are brought within economical limits. I know of no reason why these vessels should not be replaced when the proper time comes."

School Bell Sounds the Knell Of Dainty Summer Dishes

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOCK
SCHOOL BELLS call out lusty appetites. Mothers begin to turn to their cook books for luncheon and dinner dishes that feed "school scholars" well. Summer dainties give way to school-time studies.
Ribbons of Veal With Noodles
 (Serves 4 to 6)
 One-half pound egg noodles.

A sturdy loaf of veal, ham and macaroni is what the back-to-school movement needs.

¾ cup butter or olive oil, 1 cup grated cheese, salt and pepper, 1 pound round veal steak, 1 can tomato soup, 1 onion, other seasoning to taste.

Cut veal into ribbons. Brown veal and onion in butter or olive oil. Add tomato soup, salt, pepper and other desired seasoning. Cook slowly for half hour. Add half of grated cheese and simmer for 10 minutes more. Cook egg noodles in plenty of boiling salted water. Drain when tender. Place cooked noodles on platter, make a hollow in centre of mound and fill with the sauce. Arrange rib bons of veal over the noodles and serve with remaining cheese.

Macaroni Meat Loaf
 One-half pound macaroni, 1 egg, ½ pound ground smoked ham, ½ pound ground veal.
 Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender, drain. Arrange half the macaroni in a layer on bottom of meat loaf pan. Cover this with a layer of the meat mixture made by blending the egg with the veal and ham. Top this with rest of macaroni and then another layer of meat. Bake for 45 minutes in moderate oven (350 degrees F.). Garnish with sprigs of parsley, halves of pineapple rings and prunes, or quartered tomatoes.

Here's a hefty luncheon dish for the young athlete:
Macaroni Omelette
 (Serves 4 to 6)

One-half pound macaroni, 4 eggs, 4 tablespoons milk, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento, salt and pepper to taste.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and chop slightly. Separate the egg yolks and whites. Add the milk to the yolks and beat, then fold in the stiffly-beaten egg whites, the macaroni, pimiento, green pepper and seasoning. Turn this mixture into a hot frying pan that has been well greased on sides and bottom with the three tablespoons butter. Cook on medium heat until the bottom of the omelette starts to brown and loosen from the sides of the pan.

Place in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) and bake until the surface of the omelette is dry and evenly browned. Cut through the centre and fold one half over the other. Place on serving platter and serve.

WEDDINGS

AKINS—HARRIS
 At the Church of Our Lord on Saturday evening, Rev. G. H. Scarrett united in marriage Marian Margaret, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, Medina Street, and Mr. John W. Akins, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Akins, Simcoe Street. The church was effectively decorated with gladioli in the pastel shades and carnations and sweet peas, tied with white satin ribbon, marked the guest pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in her white satin gown with its short train and a long-sleeved bolero, and her filmy veil, which was arranged beneath a cap of orange blossoms and pearls, was worn over her face as she entered the church. She carried a shower bouquet of Rapture roses.

Miss Delores Pettingell, the bridesmaid, wore a pretty frock of pale green net, and a veil in a deeper shade, beneath a cluster of Bagdad gladioli, her sheaf bouquet being composed of the same flowers. Mr. Robert Akins supported his brother, and the ushers were Messrs. Arthur Lorimer, Leslie Clarke and Walter Hyslop.

Early fall flowers were arranged in the home of the bride's parents for the reception, which followed the service, and a three-tiered cake centred the table for the buffet supper.

Mrs. Harris was gowned in black lace and wore a corsage bouquet of shell-pink carnations and Rapture roses, and Mrs. Akins wore a gown of black cut-velvet and a corsage bouquet of red roses, their hats and accessories being in black.

After a honeymoon trip up the island, for which the bride left in a navy blue mixture suit of English tweed, and blue accessories, Mr. and Mrs. Akins will take up residence in their new home at 422 Powell Street, which had been presented to them by the bride's parents.

Among the gifts was a large silver tray, presented to the bride from her former associates on the staff of the Insurance Department at the Parliament Building.

COUSINS—MOSS

Rev. A. de B. Owens officiated at the marriage of Eunice Freda, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moss, 3259 Quadra Street, and Mr. James Ed. Cousins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cousins, Malahat, which was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Church of Our Lord, which was arranged in a pretty setting of gladioli in pastel shades. Mrs. Ruby Moore, who presided at the organ, played "The Wedding March," and while the register was being signed, "I Love You Truly."

The charming bride was given away by her father and wore a floor-length gown of white satin, with a lace yoke and lace inserted in the sleeves which tapered down to the fingers. Her embroidered veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and formed a train. She carried a shower bouquet of tearose buds and maiden-hair fern, tied with pale pink tulle ribbon.

Miss Kathleen Stone, the bridesmaid, wore a bouffant frock of turquoise blue taffeta, with a high collar, and tied with a pale pink tulle sash, with a turquoise blue taffeta hat to match, trimmed with pink flowers. She carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations and asters, tied with pale pink tulle ribbon.

Little Patricia Cousins, sister of the bridegroom, was a pretty flower girl in a dainty frock of shell pink silk, tied with ribbons and wore a bandeau of flowers in her hair. She carried a colonial posy. Mr. Robert Moffat was best man.

Pink and orchid shaded gladioli were prettily arranged in the home of the bride's parents for the reception which followed, during which the bride and groom stood under a bell with tall baskets of shell pink gladioli on either side.

The bride's cake, standing in folds of pink and mauve tulle, between vases of flowers, centered the refreshment table.

The bride's mother wore a gown of black triple sheer, with white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of brown velvet, with dark accessories. They both wore corsages bouquets of white carnations.

After a honeymoon trip on the island, for which the bride left gowned in a navy blue flowered dress, with navy accessories and three-quarter length coat of crushed strawberry wool. Mr. and Mrs. Cousins will make their residence at Mill Bay.

Darwin roses and lilies of the valley flanked the wedding cake, with lighted tapers in crystal sconces. Mr. and Mrs. Welch left later in the evening for Victoria, en route to Vancouver and Seattle. On their return they will reside at Port Alberni.

German Airwoman Flying in U.S.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Hanna Reitsch is tiny and blue-eyed and next year she is going to land a flying machine on the roof of a New York skyscraper.

Hanna, here from her native Germany for the national air races, described the helicopter which she flew under perfect control inside an auditorium a few months ago.

It has three speeds forward, one in reverse and two sideways. It is the most successful helicopter in the history of man's efforts to rise and descend vertically. It has a top speed in level flight of 95 miles an hour.

The machine's unique system permits vertical flight under power. If the motor stops, the contraption simply drifts to earth.

The unprecedented pace for the international speed classic put Turner more than 10 miles ahead of Earl Ortman, who encountered more trouble. Turner became the first man to win the event twice.

He decisively shattered Michel Detroit's previous Thompson mark of 264.26 miles an hour, set in 1936.

Ortman, who lives in San Diego, Calif., limped in for second place and $9,000 compared with Turner's $22,000—$18,000 for winning the classic and $4,000 for a new record.

Steve Wittman, farmer pilot from Oshkosh, Wis., flew a steady race to take third place in his red Wittman special, winning $4,500.

Two Awards For Bravery

NANAIMO—At the Labor Day annual championship track and field meet here yesterday two Royal Humane Society parchments for acts of bravery in 1937 were presented.

One award was made to Mrs. Sarah Rice, who sustained painful burns when she rushed into a burning house near her home on the Indian Reserve on December 19 and rescued little Annie and Fanny Frenchie during the absence of their mother. Both children were nearly suffocated when they reached the open air.

Young Sonny Vollmers, the other recipient when seven years of age, saved his five-year-old companion, Neil Nicholson, from drowning in the Millstream, after he had fallen off a float near their home. When Neil came to the surface of the water, Sonny seized his hand and, clinging to the raft with the other hand, screamed until help arrived.

Piff Paff Poofers Hold Convention

FORT ERIE, Ont. (CP)—Piff Paff Poofers from Canada and the United States closed a three-day convention yesterday with magician Ted Anneman, New York, mystifying a crowd of 1,000 by apparently catching a rifle bullet in his mouth.

Police Chief Andrew Griffin marked the bullet and later identified the slug which Anneman spit out after a British army rifle was fired at the magician's open mouth from a distance of about 40 feet.

The Piff Paff Poofers, a group of amateur and professional magicians, meet each year to exchange tricks.

25 Years Ago

SEPTEMBER 5, 1913
(From the Times Files)

With the arrival yesterday of the first Victorian representative of the Canadian Bisley team, confirmation is obtained of the excellent showing made by the three British Columbia representatives at the great national meeting at Bisley, at which the best shots of the British Empire annually congregate. Q.M.S. Hatcher arrived yesterday from Seattle and will be followed on Monday by Sgt. Carr. The third British Columbian was Perry, the former King's prizeman, of Vancouver.

"Yvonne de Treville, Brussels," in firm calligraphy on the register of the Empress Hotel, betokened the arrival here of the famous prima donna from the land that has been aptly termed "the battleground of Europe." Famous already in a hundred opera houses of the old world, Mile. Treville has not yet carried the magic of her art in the west, and the real object of her visit here is to arrange for a recital in the year 1914, for, be it whispered gently, this energetic lady from Belgium is her own "advance agent," her own manageress, press agent, and stenographer combined.

It was announced this morning by A. T. Goward, local manager, that the new car barns, which have just been erected by the British Columbia Electric Railway at Cloverdale, will be put into use immediately.

Children Attend Holiday Sports

Races and Costume Events at Beacon Hill Park

Several hundred kiddies, ranging from tots of four and five up to 'teen-age youngsters gathered on the football ground at Beacon Hill Park yesterday afternoon for the children's sports and costume events arranged by the Victoria celebration committee.

Twenty and thirty in a line they raced across the field for pocket money prizes which were handed out at the end of each event by J. A. Harrison, assistant city comptroller-treasurer, who assisted Alderman and Mrs. W. H. Davies, Arthur Manson and others in conducting the program. It was mostly flat racing with a monkey race and costume race to finish off the list.

Prizes were also distributed for the best costumes. A number of the kiddies dressed up as actors and actresses for this. Sheila Grice, as Sonja Henie, captured first award as an actress. Betty May McAlphen as a Dutch girl was second and Marjorie McGaw third as Virginia Bruce.

Bruce Allen, who dressed as Shirley Temple, won the boys' event. Charlie Gould took the award for the best decorated bicycle.

Edith McAlphen and Betty McPherson won the prizes for decorated doll buggies.

Conservatives To Hear Reports

Victoria Conservative Association has arranged a meeting for Thursday night to which the public is invited for the purpose of hearing reports on the party's national convention when Hon. R. J. Manion was chosen leader.

The gathering will be in the Conservative rooms, Campbell Building, with R. D. Harvey presiding.

Chief speakers will be three leading Conservatives, who are expected to play prominent roles at the party's provincial convention later this month when a new B.C. leader will be selected. They are Herbert Anscomb, M.P.P.; R. L. Maitland, K.C., M.P.P.; and F. S. Cunliffe of Nanaimo.

A program of entertainment has also been arranged.

LEONARD SACKS is among those who believe that Lou Ambers would regain the lightweight boxing crown in a second edition with Henry Armstrong. "You can't keep them apart," says Sacks, who handled Jack Dempsey for a number of years. "Ambers didn't map out a successful plan until the last five rounds.

"All he'd had to do when Armstrong shoved him against the ropes and leaned on him was duck from under and sidewise Henry while the latter was trying to extricate himself.

"Armstrong is amazing. They can't fight him going forward, because he don't let them. He's the one who goes forward... constantly... even when dead tired.

"But some night... somewhere, he's gonna have to 'give' for a second. It isn't human for him to keep up that pace always. "And when he 'gives' for an instant, somebody'll tag him... and he'll go. One blow will beat him when he runs out of gas."

Now all those interested have to do is to dig up someone who can get in that one sock before he happens to be tossed into an exitless enclosure with a buzz saw. Armstrong throws so many punches that in the Ambers engagement a radio announcer, Clem McCarthy, half the time mistook him for Joe Louis, and the Herkimer Hurricane himself easily might be forgiven for gaining the same impression. We doubt that Ambers hits hard enough to slow Armstrong down... let alone put him on the deck, however. The pasting Ambers took in their first start would also have to be taken into consideration in doping an encore.

Clark Griffith believes that he has solved the mystery of Zeke Bonura's long batting slump. Bonura likes his mother's cooking, and anybody knows that there is nothing light about Italian food. All summer Zeke is away from home living on hotel fare. All winter he has made up for lost time... stowing away mama's spaghetti, macaroni, ravioli, antipasto and minestrone.

Griffith gave the Chicago White Sox Joe Kuhel for Bonura to give Washington a right-handed power hitter, but gave up on the big boy from New Orleans a month or so ago... ordered that Jimmy Wadell be played at first base. But Bonura finally got back in the game, and his bat boomed. Griffith is convinced that all that was the matter with Bonura was fat.

"It took hot August days to melt the blubber from his shoulders and waist," he explains. So Bonura goes on a strict diet next winter.

Mike Jadwiga Jedzejowska, whose name gives lino-type operators plenty of trouble, improved her tennis by imitating stars for whom she retrieved balls in her younger days. She attracted attention by winning the Polish championship. Mike Jedzejowska showed more improvement than any other woman player last year.

This season she reached the quarter-final round at Wimbledon, and bagged the Queen's Club and Middlesex crowns in England. Bearing in mind that Mrs. Helen Wills Moody is not competing and that Mrs. Anita Lizana Ellis is not defending the title, Mike Jedzejowska must be considered among the favorites for the United States singles championship.

A snare made of rope and a net, apparently hung across a game trail by prehistoric Indians, was found in an abandoned cliff dwelling in Colorado.

During 1937, the American public spent 13 per cent more on theatre and football tickets than in 1936.

Lanky Half-miler Double Victor in Nanaimo B.C. Championship Meet

NANAIMO (CP)—A rain-sodden sand track at Central Sports Ground yesterday bogged down coast district athletes, and only one provincial record was equalled—none broken—in the ninth annual Labor Day track meet, British Columbia women's and senior men's championships.

But the meet brought out these features:

The double defeat of Vancouver's dusky Barbara Howard, member of Canada's team to the Empire Games this year, by slender Marion Borden of Powell River, B.C.

The double victory of Bill Dale, Victoria member of the Empire Games squad, in the 880-yard event and the mile run.

The sparkling performance of 16-year-old Campbell Williams of Nanaimo, B.C., who led the field in both senior and junior 100-yard events, overcoming such stellar opposition as Jack Harrison, the fleet-footed Vancouver traffic patrolman, another Games team member.

The record-equalling time was by Marion Borden in the 60-metre sprint for senior women. She covered the distance in 7 6/10 seconds, the record which had stood since 1932.

If the track had been fast, meet officials said, the record would have fallen by "several tenths" in the race.

LED ALL WAY

Bill Dale grabbed himself a lead of a few feet in the 880-yard run, followed by Joe Addison, also of Victoria, and Russell Phillips of Vancouver, in that order. They held their positions almost to a foot from start to finish of the run which lasted 2 minutes and 6 seconds.

In the mile event he pulled up from behind to breast the tape ahead of Nanaimo's Ernest Stolzberg and Clarke Jones of Vancouver, in 4:35 2/10. Addison, second in the 880, beat out Dale in the 440-yard race, however, winning in 51 8/10 seconds. Third went to F. W. Rutledge of Vancouver.

With Dale taking individual aggregate honors, in the men's senior class by virtue of two firsts, a second and a third for a total of nine points, Victoria Y.M.C.A. athletes gained team aggregate honors as a result of all-around strength.

THOMPSON WINS SHOT

Bill Thompson placed first in the senior shot-put, ahead of Norman Willis and Fred Loeffler, with a mark of 46 feet 3/4 inches, and third in the high jump. Fred Smith was runner-up in the broad jump and Addison third in the senior 220. Smith also led the field in the hop-step-and-jump, with Bill Dale third, and the Y.M.C.A. (Turn to Page 10, Col. 6)

Everton Wins Fourth Game

Retains English Football Lead By Blanking Aston Villa 3 to 0

LONDON (CP)—Everton retained leadership of the English Football League yesterday with a 3 to 0 victory over Aston Villa at Villa Park. It was the Lancashire team's fourth straight triumph and the second successive defeat for the colorful Villans on their own ground.

A 2 to 0 decision at Bolton put Chelsea in second place in the major league with six points, two behind Everton.

Jimmy Todd City Champ

Defeats Ted Colgate 9 and 8 in Amateur Golf Final

Jimmy Todd is king of Victoria's amateur golfers for the fourth successive year. Yesterday over the Victoria Club links, his home course, the brilliant southpaw crushed Teddy Colgate, Colwood, 9 and 8, in the 36-hole final of the annual city championship. Establishing a seven-hole lead off the first 18 holes, Todd ended the match on the 28th green.

Todd was never seen in better form. In the morning he blasted his way around the course in 67, two under par. Colgate had a 74. Todd was out in 31, two under perfect figures, and back in 36, par golf. Colgate had a 35 on the first nine and needed four more strokes coming back.

Although the match ended on the 28th, Todd and Colgate played out the round in the afternoon and the newly-crowned champion cut a stroke off his morning round. He was out in 34, but burned up the course on the second nine to post a 32, four under par. Colgate had 36-40-76.

On the 36 holes Todd had nine birdies and 23 pars.

In the second round of the championship on Sunday morning Todd defeated Bob Morrison, 6 and 5, while in the semifinals in the afternoon he whipped A. S. G. Musgrave by a like score.

In the par competition J. McIlraith was the winner. Finishing 3 up, with Walter Newcombe runner-up, being 2 up. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. R. Hadley and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hepburn were the winners of the mixed foursomes. H. A. Tomalin won the putting competition on Sunday with Mrs. Sheffield, R. F. Castle and H. F. ## Colwood and Cards Beaten

Drop Double-headers in B.C. Softball Finals at Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Two provincial championships in softball came to Vancouver teams when Vancouver Shores and Ivanhoe swept both ends of their respective playoff double-headers with Victoria Cardinals and Colwoods here Labor Day.

Shores captured the women's crown by virtue of a pair of one-sided victories over the Cardinals. Shore hitters landed on Bertha Crosby, on the mound for the Cards, for 26 hits and a 25 to 7 win in the afternoon tilt and then came back at night to blast Izzy Milliken for a dozen bingles and a 17 to 5 triumph. The series was a best-of-three-games affair.

Ivanhoe came by their title—the men's senior B bumble—the hard way, just managing to eke out a 3 to 0 win in the first game. In the second clash, however, they had things much their own way and breezed through to a 9 to 1 triumph and the championship.

Buddell, chucking for Colwoods in the afternoon tilt, might have managed to squeeze through with a win on his ninth hit but for the timely hitting of Ivanhoe's Ab Dougan. Dougan did most of the heavy stickwork for the locals, hitting three for three and driving in two runs. His double in the first was part of a four-hit barrage that scored what proved to be the winning run.

FINE PITCHING

Colwoods had a relapse in the nightcap as Ivanhoe's Ned Dykes shackled them with a one-hit display, their own Fred Bibles bough yielding nine hits. Only one Victoria player reached first as Dykes struck out 15 and allowed no walks.

The visitors' lone run came in the fifth when George Barnes drove a ball that struck Dykes' leg. He completed the circuit on a bad throw designed to catch him stealing second.

Pitcher Wynne-Myers had a big hand in winning her own ball game in the afternoon over the Cards. She had four hits, a homer, a triple, and two singles in seven trips, to back up her six-hit hurling. Cardinals found Ruth Williams but for three bingles in the final clash.

Dempsey-Louis To Be Battery

CHICAGO — Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis, former and present heavyweight champions, have agreed to form the open battery next Monday night here in a preliminary ceremony to the United States girls' softball finals.

The meet, which includes entries from Canada, will open tomorrow. On Thursday, more than 50 games are scheduled to be played at five fields.

Field Reduced for St. Leger

LONDON — Withdrawal of three horses from tomorrow's running of the St. Leger Stakes at Doncaster was announced today.

They were the French horses, Apollonius and Callais, owned by M. Bousac, and Mrs. J. Shand's Seventh Wonder.

Nine horses were left for the race, last of the season's classics for three-year-olds. Changes in riding arrangements today put Beary on Ramtapa, owned by Sir Abe Bailey; H. Wragg, astride Forough I, of the Aga Khan's stable and Smirke will ride La-Li, also owned by the Aga Khan and the only filly in the race.

H. E. Morris's Pasch is favorite at odds of 6 to 5.

Frank W. Fuller Jr., sportsman fier and winner of the 1937 Bendix Trophy race, has been appointed "Chief Pilot" of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Duval Wins Race

Captures Penwill Cup in Cycle Classic at Beacon Hill Park

The prized Penwill Perpetual Trophy for the annual Labor Day 10-mile bicycle race, came to Victoria yesterday when Neil Duval of this city went 10 miles around Beacon Hill to finish the classic in 29 minutes 3 seconds. Last year a Vancouver rider won the cup.

Duval rode a steady race throughout, figuring his position each lap. He was always in the first three or four riders, but only at the finish did he move into the lead.

Half a length behind him came Jack Barton of Victoria, who was also among the leaders throughout the race.

Leo Marchiori, veteran racer from Vancouver, led the field for half the race, being the leader at the end of the first five-mile laps.

At the sixth, however, he fell far behind and when the race finished he was the last rider across the line. Patrick Hoole of Vancouver, made a sensational gain on the sixth lap and crossed first, several lengths ahead of the others.

Third in the feature race of the meet was Tom Howe of Vancouver, followed by John Newman of Victoria. Winners of the lap prizes were Leo Marchiori and Neil Duval.

Victors In 14-inning Battle

McLellan Hero in 3 to 2 Win; Vancouver Takes Second 8 to 4

In one of the most thrilling softball games in the history of the sport in Victoria, Cameron Lumber Company won a 14-inning engagement with Vancouver Alberta Lumber Company 3 to 2 in the first game of the British Columbia senior A finals at the Athletic Park yesterday afternoon.

The Albertas copped the second engagement 8 to 4 to force a third and deciding game in Vancouver on Saturday.

Once again it was Rosy McLellan, brilliant little pitcher, who pulled Camerons through to victory in the marathon battle. In the ninth inning, with his team one run behind, Rosy punched out a single to score the tying run and in the 14th he came through with a million-dollar hit to push home the winning run.

As a matter of fact McLellan should have won the game in regulation innings 1 to 0, as Jack O'Connor, Cameron's left fielder, dropped a fly ball in the seventh inning to allow Albertas to score their two runs.

HURLS BOTH GAMES

McLellan tried to put all the "iron man" act in the second game by again taking the pitching mound but it was too much for the little auburn-haired star. The Albertas collected 15 hits off Rosy in the second game, the Victoria hurler showing the strain of pitching successive games. In the evening McLellan did not have his usual speed and his regular perfect control was missing.

It was the first game that packed all the thrills and excitement for the fans. For six innings the clubs played scoreless ball. In the seventh Bazzasso opened the inning for Albertas with a single, beating out an infield hit to Emery. Cima sacrificed Bazzasso to second. Elligott flied to O'Connor. Turkington laced a line drive at O'Connor who dropped the ball after getting his hands on it, allowing Bazzasso to score. Gilmore smashed a double to right field scoring Turkington. Ediss flied to Murray for the third out.

Camerons got one run back in their half of the seventh. Murray got a life at first when Marsh fumbled his roller, and stole second. Emery popped to Middleton, Murray racing to third after the catch. McLellan hit to Elligott who tried to catch Murray at the plate but the throw was too late. Harris sacrificed McLellan to second. Dale grounded out to Turkington.

The ninth saw Camerons tie the score. Murray singled to right field and advanced to second on Murray's sacrifice. Emery grounded out to Bazzasso. McLellan lashed a hit into right field to send Murray scurrying across the plate. Harris grounded to Elligott.

Camerons pulled themselves out of a tight spot in the 11th by some smart fielding. Middleton hit safely and was sacrificed to second by White. Bazzasso was safe on a hard smash to Emery. Middleton reaching third. Cima attempted to bunt a run home but Middleton was nipped at the plate on a fast throw. Munn to Harris. Elligott popped to Harris for the third out.

WINNING RUN

The 14th saw Camerons win the game. Munn pushed the ball between first and second for a single. Murray bunted and was safe when Turkington fumbled the ball. Emery hit to Bazzasso and Munn was forced at third. McLellan strode to the plate and smashed the ball through the box to score Murray with the winning run. The little pitcher was nearly mobbed by his teammates.

McLellan allowed five hits and struck out six. Shorty White, who hurled for the Albertas, also allowed five hits while he fanned seven. Each club was charged with three errors.

Fielding highlight of the game was Tommy Johnston's catch of Turkington's foul fly in the

Pittsburgh Drops Pair

National League Baseball Leaders Beaten Twice By Chicago Cubs

Pittsburgh Pirates, who stumbled around for weeks without suffering any damage beyond that to their self-esteem, today awoke to the fact that the law of baseball averages, as well as the Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cubs, is catching up with them.

Emerging from yesterday's holiday festivities on the short end of two games with Chicago, the battered Buccaners also discovered that their National League lead had been cut by two full games. For while the Cubs were whipping them, 3 to 0 and 4 to 3, the Reds were taking 4 to 3 and 4 to 2 decisions from the St. Louis Cardinals—a combination of circumstances which left the Cincinnati club only four games off the pace in second place and Chicago five games away in third.

Even the breaks went against the Pirates, except at the box office. An overflow crowd of 42,545, largest of the day's total big-league attendance of 179,550, saw the Cubs score three unearned runs to take the first game, despite Ed Brandt's five-hit pitching job. They then won the second on a ninth-inning ground rule double by Carl Reynolds and Hank O'Dea's single.

Tot Pressnell was charged with both defeats as Boston Bees turned back Brooklyn Dodgers, 5 to 4 and 5 to 3.

In the American League the New York Yankees beat the Philadelphia Athletics, 5 to 2 and 6 to 3; Boston Red Sox walloped the Washington Senators, 14 to 4 and 8 to 6, and the Cleveland Indians won their sixth and seventh straight, over the Chicago White Sox, by scores of 6 to 4 and 4 to 2.

Lehrig broke his major league record and tied Babe Ruth's lifetime mark by topping 100 runs driven in for the 13th straight year.

The New York Giants, after Cliff Melton had pitched a three-hit, 7 to 0 shutout in the opener, got no better than an even break with the Phillies, who took the nightcap, 4 to 3. Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Browns also split, St. Louis winning the first, 3 to 2, and Detroit the six-inning nightcap, 9 to 3.

COAST LEAGUE

The battered and tattered remnants of the cellar champion Oakland A's pitching staff still have occasional good games left in their well-worn arms.

Fitchers Jack Bittner and Bob Joyce demonstrated this yesterday when they dished up a pair of niffies, beating the dimming Hollywood Stars twice, 3 to 1 and 7 to 1.

After dropping the opener, 6 to 1, to San Francisco Seals, who scored five of their runs in the first inning on three walks and three hits, the league-leading Los Angeles Angels overcame a three-run Seals' lead in the sixth inning to win the second game, 5 to 4.

Second-place Sacramento split a pair with the fourth-place San Diego Padres. The Padres won the opener, 5 to 3. A homer by Nick Cullop with one mate aboard in the first inning of the second game gave the Senators a 3 to 1 win.

A scheduled double-header between Seattle and Portland was rained out by a downpour at Portland.

SECOND GAME

Taking the lead in the second inning the Albertas were never headed in the night game. The Vancouver lads found no trouble getting to McLellan and Bazzasso and Turkington were the big guns in the 15-hit attack, the former poling out two home runs and Turkington driving out four hits in as many trips to the plate.

Fisher, who went to the mound for Albertas, held Camerons to seven scattered hits while he struck out five. McLellan whiffed two.

Camerons got off to a good start by scoring one run in the first inning. Baker was called safe at first when catcher Cima interfered with the batter as he was running to first. Munn sacrificed Baker to second. Murray flied to Cima. Emery singled through short scoring Baker. McLellan struck out.

Albertas came right back to get two runs in their half of the inning. Bazzasso hit sharply past first for a single and was sacrificed to second by Cima. Elliott drove a sharp hit over third base and then stole second. Turkington punched a single to right field scoring Bazzasso and Elliott.

In the second inning Bazzasso smacked his first home run with the bases empty.

Camerons got another run in the fourth when Emery tripled and scored on an error by Bazzasso. Albertas went two runs up again in the fifth when Turkington singled and went all the way home on Gilmore's single to right field, outfielder Johnston making a bad throw to the infield.

Vic Dale poled a long hit to right field for a home run in the seventh and gave Camerons their third run. Albertas came right back in their half and scored two more. Elliott singled to left and went to second on a wild pitch. Turkington singled to right field scoring Elliott. Turkington was sacrificed to second and scored on successive wild heaves by McLellan.

Bazzasso's second home run with Fisher on gave Albertas their final runs in the eighth.

Camerons got one run in the ninth when Harris singled over second, went to second on an error, third on an infield out and scored on O'Connor's single to right field.

Short score: R. H. E. Camerons 4 7 2. Albertas 8 15 2. Batteries—McLellan and Harris; Fisher and Cima. Umpires—Stock and Pick.

Bill Stromkins Double Winner

Local Driver Wins Two Events at Abbreviated Outboard Regatta

What promised to be the most spectacular international inboard and outboard racing meet ever staged in Victoria was somewhat spoiled by heavy seas and a downpour of rain which continued throughout the better part of the afternoon at Cordova Bay yesterday.

The meet was staged by the Vancouver Island Outboard Association with the pick of the Pacific Northwest's drivers and boats on hand, as one of Labor Day's feature attractions.

With the beach lined by approximately 2,000 thrill-craving spectators, the regatta opened under ideal conditions. The time trials and four scheduled events were run off before the downpour started. One other event was presented before the meet was finally halted.

Bill Stromkins, Victoria, roared over the choppy waters to win two of the events—an all-local inboard race of five laps for the Van Dyke rory, and the five-lap inboard open for the Charles Ellis Cup.

In the all-local race Stromkins was given plenty of competition by Percy Dutton piloting H 6 who held alongside up to the last turn when his boat began to miss forcing him to drop back. Dutton finished second and Brook Robertson in his H 12 was third.

The five-lap open events provided more thrills with the water becoming choppy. Close in second position against Stromkins was Dave Le Clercq, Seattle, in his classy high-powered craft, Stubby Frank Sonntag, Wenatchee, piloting his El Diablo, taking third place. L. W.

HIS WIN DECIDED SERIES—As expected it was Don Budge, seen above, who carried the United States to victory over Australia in the Davis Cup tennis challenge round. Yesterday Budge whipped Adrian Quist in straight sets to give the Americans their third point and victory. It was Budge's second singles victory the California red-head having defeated Jack Bromwich on Saturday. Budge is now expected to join the professional ranks.

Freddy Wood Champ

Establishes New Course Record of 65 in Winning Alberta Open Golf Title at Calgary

CALGARY — Freddy Wood, a 68 to take a four-stroke lead at the half-way mark. At the end of the third round Leonard with a sub par 68, increased his margin to five strokes with Wood in second position.

Wood fairly "burned up" the course during the final 18 holes. The new titleholder went out in 30, five under par, while Leonard was taking 37. Wood maintained his two stroke advantage when he came home in par 35 the same as Leonard. Leonard, who paced the field for three quarters of the tournament weakened during the first half of the final round.

Henry Martell, of the Highland's Club, Edmonton, and Ben Colk, assistant pro at Jericho Club, Vancouver, tied for third place with scores of 290 each for the 72 holes. Martell, runner-up at Edmonton a year ago, was the leading amateur of the tournament.

Italian Speedboat King

Count Theo Rossi Captures Gold Cup in Three Straight Heats; Canadian Contender Breaks Down

DETROIT—Count Theo Rossi of Turin, Italy, yesterday became the first foreigner to win the 35-year-old Gold Cup that symbolizes the speedboat championship of North America when he drove his hydroplane, Alagi, a small speed demon, to a three-heat victory on the Detroit River course.

Accidents, mechanical and otherwise, reduced the field of eight original nominees in the race to two in the first heat, three in the second and two again in the final. In each heat Rossi had to compete with a pair of youngsters from Oakland, Calif., Dan Arena, pilot and Dan Foster, mechanic, of Miss Golden Gate.

Rossi clicked off the first 30-mile lap at an average speed of 63.155 miles an hour. The Californians averaged 56.319. In the second heat Rossi turned the course at an average of 66.080 miles an hour, while his two Van Dyke, who flew from Seattle to join his boat which arrived yesterday, turned over on the first turn of the third lap in this event, while he was running in second spot.

Van Dyke's boat, Water Dog, was the favorite making the fastest run in the time trials, of 51.6 miles per hour.

In the 170-cu. in. inboard hydroplane event, Le Clercq, crossed the finishing line first. Dutton was second and Len Butler in his H 7 was third.

Jack Clark, Nanaimo, piloting his R 44 in the five-lap outboard event, put on a fine show of handling to take the event. Louis Schmelz, Victoria, in his R 48, was second.

In an open event staged at the close of the regatta, Irvin Earle, Victoria, driving Scot, nosed out Glen Van Dyke and his Miss Wildfire II, from Seattle. Le Clercq took third place.

The first five fastest boats in the time trials over a 220-yard course were as follows: L. W. Van Dyke, Seattle, 51.6 m.p.h.; Lorne Garden, Seattle, 45.6; Frank Sonntag, Wenatchee, 45; Jack Clark, Nanaimo, 43.25; and Glen Van Dyke, Seattle, 42.8.

The various trophies were presented by Alderman E. Williams at a dance held during the evening at McMorran's pavilion.

DALE STAR IN "Y" TEAM SWEEP

C.A. No. 1-mile relay squad beat out the association's second quartette in the team event.

In the senior women's section Anna Peden was second in the high and third in the broad jumps, and Florence Byatt won the shot put and finished second in the baseball throw.

John Stewart led the Victoria juniors with a first in the 220 sprint and a second in the century. Fred Smith placed second in the high jump ahead of Norm Willis, while Tony Hope took a second in the junior quarter.

Darlene Woodburn, who led her heat in the intermediate girls' 60 metres dash, placed second in the broad jump, while L. Crowther and Barbara McKay finished in the money in sprint heats, though defeated in the final.

The Victoria women took the 400-metre relay in a duel against Western Sports Club, Vancouver.

Eagles Are Ball Champs

Defeating the Victoria Club 7 to 5 in 10 innings, the Eagles captured the city baseball championship yesterday morning at the Athletic Park. By their victory the lodgemen gained possession of the Rutherford Cup, which was presented to them at the end of the game by George Jay.

Finishing in third place the Eagles defeated Pitzer and Nex in the first round of the playoffs, and then came through to a smart victory over the Victoria squad.

Eagles got away to a three-run lead in the first inning, and held it until the ninth, when the Victoria squad doublechecked the count at 5 to 5 to force extra innings. In the 10th Erickson came through with a timely double and scored two runs to give the Eagles victory and the championship.

Eagles collected only five hits off Cann, Victoria hurler, but made them count. Victoria batters got to young Davies for 12 hits, but failed to come through in the pinches. Each pitcher struck out 10.

The score by innings: Eagles 3 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 2 7. Victoria 0 0 2 0 0 0 1 0 5.

WOMAN ANGLER WINS

start of the season, but only 440 qualified for the final. As practically everywhere else on this coast, fishing has not been good. It certainly wasn't anything to rave about over the holiday weekend. Only 90 of the total number of finalists caught fish. There were 36 prizes distributed amongst this lucky group.

Fishing started at 5 each morning and closed at noon. The start for the fishing grounds was held in semi-darkness, and it was a colorful sight to watch the crafts, all twinkling with lights, stamped for the point when the rocket went off to signal the opening. Ediz Hook point was the most popular angling ground. Two-thirds of the boats cruised around in those waters and gave it a thorough combing.

All told there were 100 out-of-town anglers competing in the finals, including the party from Victoria. The only member of British Columbia's capital city party to crash the prize list was congenial George Simpson. He landed a 13-pound seven-ounce salmon. Several others caught a fish, but they were too small to get into the "money." The majority, however, were skunked. Simpson was presented with a large tackle box.

VICTORIA PARTY

The Victoria party numbered about 40, many friends accompanying the anglers. The following Victorians angled in the derby: George "Joker" Patton, Tommy W. McPherson, Tommy Rickinson, George I. Warren, Mrs. George Warren, Dave Lewis, H. H. Cook, Chuck Kinloch, Miss I. Deakin, Ernie Silburn, George Simpson, George Simpson Jr., Dr. Hugh Clarke, Peter Brogan, Faud Ray, B. Kedell, Mrs. B. Kedell, Jimmy Dangerfield, Dr. Charles Coultas, Harry Buckle, Miss H. Tate and G. Fane.

Two Dodos Scored

Colwood Golf Club's hole-in-one weekend is shown by the record: George Quincey, playing in a four-ball match Sunday with Bill Mearns, Jim Wood and Harry Hodges, buried a spoon shot at the 187-yard 15th and it "split" the pin all the way.

Bernie Cleer, playing with Jim Wood, Al Miller and Ted Horsey yesterday, "caged" a perfect three-run shot at the 153-yard fourth. This was Bernie's first dodo, but Quincey got his initiation about five years ago at the short ninth at Macauley Point.

U.S. Retains Tennis Crown

Defeats Australia Three Matches to Two; Budge Scores Deciding Victory

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The glittering Davis Cup, symbolic of world team tennis supremacy, remains in the United States for another year, and the mangled foot-fault has reared its ugly head again.

When Donald Budge had finished with Adrian Quist of Australia by scores of 8-6, 6-1, 6-2 in the match that settled the challenge round out at the Germantown Cricket Club yesterday, Frank Hunter, an old American internationalist, said "Gee, it made me feel like I was in Paris again."

Hunter referred to the fact that after the French had won the big trophy from the United States 11 years ago, challenging American teams complained that each line judges were extremely valuable in the French cup defence, and international black looks were exchanged one year when Wilmer Allison thought he had defeated Gene Borotra of France in the deciding match but couldn't make it stick.

What happened yesterday was that an American line judge, Harold La Bair of New York, called a series of disconcerting foot-faults against Quist at the exact point in the opening set when the little Australian was blazing hot and threatening to give the world's top amateur a trimming.

Whether Quist in any circumstances could have beaten Budge and carried the challenge round to the final match between Bobby Riggs and Jack Bromwich is subject to serious doubt, but the decisions cost the invader whatever chance he had and made the crowd of over 9,000 fighting mad.

The referee had to calm them down twice.

Harry Hopman, captain of the Australians, didn't complain. He said he thought Quist was foot-faulting. What the crowd and several prominent American tennis officials complained about was the way La Bair waited until the most crucial points of the all-important first set. It broke Quist's confidence so completely that he proceeded to lose his service eight straight times, possibly a record for big-time tennis.

As things turned out, Budge's victory was the vital one, because Bromwich beat the tar out of Riggs in the concluding singles match, 6-4, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2, giving a final winning margin of only 3 to 2 over the scrapping Aussies.

In the doubles Sunday Quist and Bromwich defeated Budge and Gene Mako.

Old-time Fair Is Recalled

Duncan McTavish Compares It With Modern Exhibitions Held in Victoria

An interesting account of the first agricultural show ever held on Vancouver Island and a comparison between it and the modern exhibition, the 1938 chapter being due to open Saturday, was given to fellow members of the Kiwanis Club at luncheon today at the Empress Hotel by Duncan McTavish, president of the B.C. Agricultural Association.

The first show was held early in October, 1862, Mr. McTavish said, on Victoria's old Market Square. The judging was done in a few hours. Nowadays it took 30 judges five or six days to complete judging. John Goodacre, pioneer butcher, was one of the big buyers.

Yearly one-day exhibitions were held in Victoria until 1872 when the first Provincial Fair was held. It has been held ever since, with the exception of the war years, Mr. McTavish said.

Next week's exhibition promises to be bigger than ever before, the president said.

"We are so full now, that really we won't know whether we'll have room for everything," he said.

MANY ENTRIES
Over 1,000 entries have been received for the poultry section. The livestock entries will be much larger, as will dairy cattle entries, which are coming from Washington, the mainland and Alberta.

Mr. McTavish recommended to the directors that the Kiwanis Club do something to encourage children in poultry raising or swine breeding.

"The youngsters are our coming citizens and coming exhibitors," he said.

Elwood Watkins told members of the new store opened at 1033 Fort Street for the sale of articles made by T.B. patients in the Kiwanis Club workshop at Fairfield Road and Rupert Street.

Austin Curtis introduced Tom Robinson, formerly of Edmonton, and now proprietor of the Century Arts Shop, as a new member. F. W. Francis was also welcomed.

Local Pictures Going to Europe

Pictures of Shirley Temple and the big fish she caught at Brentwood two years ago will be sent to newspapers and magazines in Europe's largest cities, as the result of a letter which Gwen Cash sent to Life some weeks ago, correcting a statement that Shirley caught the fish in Vancouver.

This morning Mrs. Cash had a letter from Francis C. Fuerst of Villa Miramare, Pieve Ligure, Genoa, Italy, telling her he had seen her letter in Life and would like a complete set of the pictures to place at various points in Europe.

The pictures were being prepared this morning and will be sent to Italy as soon as possible.

VICTORIANS SEE VANCOUVER FAIR

Aldermanic Delegations Head Excursion to Terminal City to View Exhibition

Warm in their praise of the hospitality shown them by Mayor George Miller and members of the Vancouver City Council during a special luncheon and personally conducted tour of the Vancouver exhibition yesterday, Victoria's aldermanic representatives were back in the city today. Accompanied by their wives, Aldermen B. J. Gadsden, Alex. Peden, Archie Wills and James Adam led an excursion steamer party to the mainland, where they were met by a reception party including Mayor Miller. Aldermen J. W. Cornett, H. L. Corey, W. H. Wilson and J. H. DeGraves. Headed by a police escort with sirens screaming, the Victoria party was conveyed to the exhibition grounds in special cars and was met there by the manager of the exhibition.

At a luncheon given by the Exhibition Association in honor of the Victorians, Alderman Adam thanked Mayor G. C. Miller for the welcome they received and congratulated the exhibition directors. He also paid tribute to S. C. McLennan, the new general manager of the exhibition.

Coal Board's Powers Backed

Hands of the Coal and Petroleum Control Board in securing information for control purposes were strengthened by the government today with an order stating that "application for licenses must be accompanied by a statutory declaration affirming the accuracy and correctness of statements made, if this is required."

Ball Players Sock Constable

Four Visitors Bound Over to Keep Peace for Assaulting at Dance

Four members of the Alberta Lumber softball team of Vancouver were convicted in City Police Court this morning of assaulting a police officer, Constable Samuel McKenzie, while in the execution of his duty at a dance at the Shrine Hall last night, and were bound over by Magistrate Henry Hall in their own recognizance in the sum of $200 to keep the peace for three months.

The four were Edward McCaffery-Gilmore, Robert Marsh, Edward Ediss and Mirco Bazzaso. "It is a very serious and disgraceful thing that young men like you should take part in a thing like knocking a police officer to the ground," commented the magistrate. "There are, however, exceptional circumstances. You are apparently steady working young men, here in the interests of sport, somewhat excited after your game and possibly with your heads a little bigger than they might be."

Stuart Henderson, appearing for the defence, argued the whole case was making a mountain out of a molehill, and that the evidence suggested the whole commotion had been started by the constable.

Earlier in the trial Mr. Henderson had sought to have the case dismissed because the constable had been hired by a private individual for duty at the dance. The magistrate, saying the practice was one generally recognized throughout the British Empire, overruled his objection.

TWICE KNOCKED DOWN

Constable McKenzie testified that while he was on duty at the Shrine Hall last night he had seen two men in argument with the cashier, McCaffery-Gilmore, one of the two, had aimed a punch at him when he sought to make them go downstairs and pay their admission to the dance. In the ensuing fracas the constable was twice knocked to the ground, with four or more men on top of him, and once nearly pushed down the stairs.

Edward Heppell, the cashier, testified the four accused and two others walked in to the hall without paying. When the clash started he called the police patrol.

Thomas English, janitor at the hall, described the struggle and told how he helped pull some of the men off the constable while the latter was lying on the ground.

Constable Edwin Sturrock told of coming with the police patrol wagon and taking the men to the station, where they spent the night in the cells.

After the four men had been called to the stand, the Magistrate commented McCaffery-Gilmore had admitted having a part in the fracas, and that the stories of the other three were so inconsistent that he could not believe them.

In Town Today

F. C. Atherton, one of Honolulu's leading business men, arrived here today with his wife, son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Hallford, and two granddaughters, to spend a vacation of five or six weeks in Victoria and at up-island points. They came here by Ss. Empress of Canada.

"We're just on holiday," Mr. Atherton said. "We want to fish and play golf and just rest, and we're told Vancouver Island is the place."

In the Empress Hotel lobby this morning the party met several Honolulu people who have been spending some weeks here. First to greet them were Mr. and Mrs. George Sherman.

"Mrs. Sherman and I grew up together," Mr. Atherton explained. Born in Honolulu, Mr. Atherton started his career in the Bank of Hawaii. Now he is president of the important firm of Castle and Cooke, which has interest in sugar, pineapples, navigation and other Hawaiian activities. He is vice-president of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin and trustee of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association and chairman of the advisory committee of the Institute of Pacific Relations.

Injured Bicycle Rider Improves

Eric Whitehead, injured in the bicycle races at Beacon Hill Park yesterday morning, was reported to be progressing favorably today.

He fell at the close of a race in which he finished second. He landed on the road on his head and was knocked unconscious.

Uniformed attendants of the St. John Ambulance Brigade rendered immediate first aid and the police patrol took him on a stretcher to St. Joseph's Hospital.

His bicycle was badly smashed, the spokes being twisted and bent. Dr. H. J. Wasson, who is attending him, said his condition was not serious.

Beatty Hears Of Proposals

C.P.R. Head Comments on Causeway and Cathedral Grove Projects

Proposals originating from the city to improve the approach to the Belleville Street docks and from the provincial government to perpetuate Vancouver Island's Cathedral Grove timber stand as a tourist attraction interested Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, on his visit to the city over the holiday.

The proposal to widen Belleville Street between the Causeway and Menzies by building a harbor retaining wall and filling in the area sloping toward the harbor was put before Sir Edward by F. E. Winslow on behalf of the city.

Mr. Winslow explained the means by which the whole approach to the C.P.R. depot could be improved and Sir Edward promised to look further into the question, review costs and inform Mr. Winslow of his decision at a later date.

"So far as I am aware," said Sir Edward, "no proposals have been made directly by the city to the company in connection with the scheme to widen Belleville Street. In the event of such a plan being presented, our officers, of course, will give it careful consideration."

The Canadian Pacific president displayed sympathy with the Cathedral Grove proposal. On this matter he said: "The desirability of undertaking to perpetuate the beauties of Cathedral Grove as an island tourist attraction is undeniable."

The grove is not the property of the E. and N. Railway Company. Discussions have taken place between representatives of the provincial government and the railway company with a view to collaborating upon arrangements to preserve the grove. So far as the company is concerned, the subject is not one upon which a statement can be made by it at this time."

this morning and left on the 11 o'clock steamer for Seattle, en route home, vowing they would return to Victoria for a similar vacation next year.

James Addison Baker, 81-year-old lawyer of Houston, and one of that city's most distinguished residents, is spending a holiday in the city with his daughter.

Bryant Cooper, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper of Honolulu, who spend their summers on Vancouver Island, arrived this morning by Ss. Empress of Canada accompanied by his wife. He will join his parents at Sproat Lake in a few days.

The Labor Day weekend brought many visitors to Victoria, among them being Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Edgett, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Walker, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. R. Kinnear, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. W. Zinn, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brown, all of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hutton, New Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. P. B. du Charmé, Tacoma; Capt. and Mrs. J. A. MacFarland, Fort Lewis; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Roberts, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Chamberlain, Salt Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Foster, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rogers, Salt Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Thompson, Winnipeg; Dr. and Mrs. S. Garter, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McJilton, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Plommer, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Stuart, Everett; Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Davies, Seattle; Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Dodge, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mann and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bovey, Vancouver; Mr. Justice and Mrs. Ford, Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. E. McFarland, Lethbridge; Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Dare and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bird, Seattle.

Billy Bartlett, 12, of 1025 Monterey Avenue, suffered a skinned knee when he was knocked from his bicycle in a collision with a car driven by Mow Chan, 629 Herald Street, on Ross Street on Saturday evening, according to a city police report.

Lucky Escapes In 3 Accidents

Motorists Have Close Brushes With Death Over Week-end

Three car accidents, all notable for miraculous escapes, marked the Labor Day week-end on southern Vancouver Island.

Frank Anderson, Fifth Street, and Jack Wheeler, Hillside Avenue, climbed from the wreckage of a heavy roadster on Shelbourne Street at 4 on Sunday afternoon after the car had been seriously wrecked when it ran off the road and struck a telephone pole and a tree. The car turned completely over and the pole fell across it.

Anderson, the driver, was unhurt and Wheeler had a slight cut on his wrist. "I expected to find them both dead," commented Chief Josiah Bull of the Saanich Police in describing the accident.

S. S. Gilling, Thetis Lake Road, probably owes his life to the fact that modern gas pumps, without a glass container on top, are installed at the McDonald Service Station at the corner of Gorge Road and Government Street.

Mr. Gilling was taken to the Jubilee Hospital on Sunday morning suffering shock and slight bruises after a gas pump had been knocked over on top of him by a runaway car.

The car had been left in reverse gear and when its owner, Fred Taylor, Lavender Avenue, Marigold, cranked the engine, it ran backward into the pump.

The gas in the tank below the pump ignited, but was put out by a service station attendant with a hand extinguisher before the fire department arrived.

City police said that if the pump had had the old style glass top Mr. Gilling would have been covered in flaming gas. E. Miyaka, Vancouver, and John Farmer, 2948 Scott Street, Victoria, climbed unhurt from their cars after they had collided head on on the Malahat yesterday morning. According to a provincial police report both machines were damaged.

Arcanum Chief Visitor Here

H. W. Johnson of New York City Arrives for Banquet This Evening

Herbert W. Johnson of New York City, Supreme Regent of the Royal Arcanum, arrived in Victoria today to pay an official visit to members of Majestic Council of this city.

He is accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, Thomas E. Miller of Tacoma, Grand Regent; Mrs. Miller and Brother W. Peeler, district organizer for Washington and British Columbia.

This evening at the Empress Hotel, where the visitors are registered, members of the local council will entertain their highest executive officer at a banquet, which will be followed by a meeting at which a class of candidates will be initiated.

This morning Mr. Johnson and Mr. Miller conferred with C. W. Stocker at the latter's Oak Bay home.

While their husbands dine this evening, the visiting ladies will be entertained by the wives of local Grand Council officers. This morning Mr. Johnson briefly referred to the growth in recent years of the Order of the Royal Arcanum. He said it now holds a foremost position in the ranks of all beneficiary fraternities and organizations on the North American continent. He emphasized the vast reserve it holds to meet all contingencies.

By Vancouver
A steady bowling performance by W. Kellock, who took five wickets for 32 runs, and consistent batting by E. S. Bullen and T.
Smythe, featured Vancouver's intercity cricket victory over Victoria Saturday League all-stars at Macdonald Park yesterday.
The mainlanders won by 74 runs,
imputing on 194 after the Capital
City eleven had been dismissed for 120.

Vancouver had previously won the May 24 intercity fixture and consequently held the Flumerfelt Cup, up for competition in the home and home series.
Runs came hard as Victoria opened at bat. Eric Quainton and George Payne made a fair stand against the mainland bowlers, the former getting 22 before he was bowled by A. J. Darcus, while Payne carried his bat to 26 before he was retired on a sensational catch by B. Robinson.
The Victoria trundlers made run-scoring difficult for the main-landers when they went in, but Bullen and Smythe executed some splendid strokes, although the latter was fortunate, as they scored 48 and 39, respectively.
The Victorians failed to show their usual form in the field.

supporting players, which in-

"You and Me" is a powerful

Human Story
Jack Holt in Expose of Life in a Boy's Reform School

"Reformatory," Jack Holt's latest Columbia picture, presented at the Dominion Theatre, is a gripping expose of life in a boys' "reform" school, fast-paced and filled with human interest.
An excellent supporting cast help make the new film a timely and thrilling screen document.
Holt at the outset is assistant warden at a men's prison. When the youths at the reformatory rebel at the brutal mismanagement, he is put in charge of them. Stern but humane, Holt institutes sweeping reforms, and puts the boys on an "honor system." He is aided by a sympathetic young woman doctor, played by Charlotte Wynters.
Vicious opposition develops from contractors who have defrauded the institution and a discharged guard launches an ingenious plot to check Holt's success. Swift, suspenseful drama ensues, with the story moving to a surprising climax.

Bing Crosby In
"Doctor Rhythm"
O. Henry created the story which has been made into "Doctor Rhythm," the musical comedy
starring Bing Crosby, Beatrice Lille and Mary Carlisle, which is now at the Oak Bay Theatre.
The original was called "The Badge of Policeman O'Roon," and is one of the best-liked O. Henry tales.
Bing Crosby is seen in the role of the fashionable doctor who dons a policeman's uniform for a day to help his best friend, Andy Devine. Bing gets his first job as bodyguard to Miss Lille's socialite niece, Mary Carlisle, and applies the strong arm of the law in a most unlawful manner to win her heart.
Four new tunes were written into the story for Bing to sing, including "My Heart is Taking Lessons" and "On the Sentimental Side."

Concessions To Sudetens

Czechs Await Reply From Germans to Broad New Proposals

PRAHA (AP) — The Czech government anxiously awaited reaction today from two quarters to its sweeping concessions to the German population of the republic.

The first question was: "Would this 'last and ultimate offer,' formulated at a four and a half hour cabinet session last night, satisfy the Sudeten German party which in long negotiations has been insisting on a degree of autonomy amounting almost to independence?"

The second question was: "How would the Czechs, who have been aroused to nationalistic fervor by the patriotic press, receive the news of a government retreat under German pressure?"

But while the Sudeten Germans were elated and the Czechs were worried, neither had a substantial basis for judging how the situation was altered by the cabinet meeting last night.

The government had not revealed details of its plans, and the Sudeten German party had not indicated whether it would take less than its original demands, which included primarily the recognition of the Sudetens' right to profess the Nazi ideology.

GO HALF WAY

Government circles hinted many of the Sudetens' eight points were met half way, but it was believed demands Czechoslovakia abandon alliances with France and Soviet Russia were definitely refused. It was also thought Czechoslovakia was unwilling to grant the Sudeten Germans greater voice in determining military policy.

A well-informed source said Czechoslovakia had wanted to reorganize the state on a system of cantons, like Switzerland, so that three all-German districts would get virtual autonomy.

The Sudeten Germans issued two communiques. One declared that "only by speedy adoption" by the government of the eight-point autonomy program "can the situation be remedied."

The second communique insisted the government knew the party's position before Henlein went to see Hitler in Bavaria. This seemed to be a move to counteract the Czechoslovak argument that Hitler, not Henlein, determined the Sudeten Germans' stand.

NO HOSTILITIES

LONDON (CPHavas) — The diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Herald (Labor) confidently predicted again today "there will be no war."

Commenting on the Czechoslovak situation, he wrote: "Late last night the Prague government, facing the most serious moment of all in the crisis, announced it was about to produce yet another set of proposals."

"And so the famous 'third plan,' which has never been made public, is dead. A 'fourth plan,' which is said to involve heavy sacrifices, will, it is hoped, be so near Konrad Henlein's eight points as to be acceptable to the Sudetens as a basis of settlement."

Discussing the military precautions taken on France's eastern frontier, the political correspondent of the Financial Times (Independent) said: "No surprise was caused in British government circles by the decision of the French government to stop the leave to the army and air force and call up a number of reservists."

"The French intentions had been conveyed to Great Britain some days ago in view of extensive German army manoeuvres and engagement of nearly 500,000 men on the German frontier for fortifications. The British government approves the decision of the French government."

British Labor In Warm Debate

BLACKPOOL, Eng. (CP) — The Trades Union Congress today gave overwhelming backing to its general council's decision that its dealing with the government over rearmament should be based on industrial, not political, considerations.

An attempt at the annual session to reject the council's report in favor of virtual refusal of any co-operation with the government failed in a one-sided show of hands.

Sir Walter Citrine, general secretary of the congress, declared the council was seeking full protection of workers' rights in the rearmament program, "but we must stand up to the aggressors and if the challenge is made this country must meet it."

He revealed that Prime Minister Chamberlain made a "very intimate" statement concerning Great Britain's defenses when the council saw him last spring at the Prime Minister's request.

Sir Walter said the congress declared last year in favor of the "government equipping this country with the defensive means to meet that challenge," and added:

"When we are brought face to face with the carrying out of that policy no general council can escape its responsibilities."

Subsequent debate brought fiery attacks on the government's foreign policy, one delegate declaring "the trade unions have to tell Mr. Chamberlain in no uncertain voice: 'If you go to war then you have not the backing of trade unionists of this country in the present circumstances.'"

At the Close, Chicago Wheat

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents lower compared with Saturday's finish. September 60's, to 60's, December 62's to 62's, corn 1/4 to 1/2 down, September 50 to 50's, December 48 to 48's, and oats 1/4 to 1/2 off.

WINNIPEG (CP) — A newspaper advertising campaign costing more than $1,000,000, on behalf of the film industry "is definite indication of the faith motion pictures place in the daily newspaper as a leading advertising medium," N. L. Nathanson, Toronto film executive, said in an address here today.

Mr. Nathanson announced the industry in Canada will participate with the United States in a campaign celebrating 50th anniversary of the invention of motion pictures. Advertising in more than 2,000 dailies is designed to acquaint people with the part motion pictures play in their lives. The anniversary campaign also includes a quiz contest, with questions based on knowledge of the movies.

Mr. Nathanson remarked the industry owes much to Canada, referring to the Canadian birth of Louis B. Mayer, Mary Pickford, Norma Shearer, Deanna Durbin, Walter Huston, Ned Sparks, Bobby Bren and Walter Pidgeon.

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP) — Winnipeg wheat futures, losses today neared 3 cents, but recovered towards the close. Flax fell the 5-cent allowable limit due to poor demand for Canadian grains and out side selling. At the final bell wheat futures were 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 lower; October 57 1/2, November 57 1/2, December 57 1/2 to 57 3/4 and May 61 to 61 1/4.

Wheat, scoring its sharpest setback in seven straight days of slumping prices, fell into the 56-cent range for the first time in more than five years.

A major influence which was said to have caused Chicago to drop more than 2 cents was unofficial information that the United States government subsidizing wheat export program may undergo revision. Grain sources claim officials are concerned by the small demand for wheat from importing countries.

Outside markets dropped to lows untouched in as much as five years, with Liverpool continuing on the down grade, closing today 1/2 to 1 1/4 lower. Buenos Aires slumped 1 1/2 cents at noon.

Canadian export sales today were small, but country markets continued over the 5,000,000 bushel mark. Saturday's deliveries to prairie points totaled 5,501,000 bushels.

Cash wheat demand was slow with top grades trading slightly easier. Coarse grains averaged lower.

Life in Holland

I-FIGHTING THE SEA
What a fine little country Holland is! It hasn't had a war for over a century, and in all history the Dutch have done little fighting except to defend themselves.

Dutch bicycle riders in Amsterdam. Where are the wooden shoes?

For the most part the defence has been against the sea. The people have fought to keep it out. Sometimes they have won, and sometimes they have lost. When a battle has been lost, it often has meant a waste of life, a flood taking the lives of thousands of persons.

The Dutch have been brave. After each flood, they have come back. They have built new dykes, and have made the old ones stronger. Bit by bit they have been winning the fight against the sea.

Holland today is the home of eight and a half million people. That is the number in the country itself, but there's a great Dutch empire with many more people than in the mother country. The empire includes the islands, Java and Sumatra, also most of Borneo and half of New Guinea. The total population of the empire is close to 70,000,000—more than half the number in the United States.

Amsterdam, the largest city in Holland, is the home of three-quarters of a million people. During a visit there, I did not see a single person wearing wooden shoes. Later this week I shall tell of a time when I saw many Dutch folk with wooden shoes on their feet, but it wasn't in one of the large cities.

The name "Holland" is supposed to mean "hollow land." Much of the country is below the level of the sea.

Notice "dam" in "Amsterdam." You also find it in other names of Dutch cities and villages—Roter-dam, Zaandam, Volendam, and so on. Dams, or dikes, guard Holland from the sea.

Like Venice and Stockholm, Amsterdam is built on islands. An important river runs through it, and there are many canals.

Ninety small islands in Amsterdam are joined together by about 300 bridges. Some of the streets are very narrow, and I have seen people walking along them with little or no worry about motor traffic. When an automobile comes along, it goes slowly, the driver honking a great deal so those on foot will step out of the way. Bicycles are more widely used in Holland than automobiles.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I came from an average modern family. I was clever and graduated from high school just before I was 16. My parents refused to let me have any friends, or go to parties, or dance, and I was crazy, like all young girls, for the innocent pleasures that the other young people enjoyed. I got a job as soon as I graduated, making $20 a week. I offered my mother 15, but she demanded it all. She bought my clothes without consulting my taste, or made over her old ones for me. I was high-spirited and resented the home tyranny, and before I was 17 ran away and took an apartment of my own. I didn't know it was wrong to have the gang in every Saturday night and to let as many as would stay over until Sunday. And so I fell. I soon got a bad name, but I didn't mean to be bad. I only wanted a good time. I would have been contented with a couple of dates a week and having my friends in my mother's house, but this was denied me. So I took what I could find, and when my mother refused to let me come home on the first Christmas I was away I just didn't care any more. However, God was good to me. I met a man who loved me enough to forget my past. We have been married eight years and have three beautiful children, and you can be sure that when my girls grow up they will have good times, but they will have it at home, with their mother watching over them and seeing that it is an innocent good time. They will not have to suffer what I have to suffer in regret for the things I did because my mother drove me out of my home.

X. Y. Z.

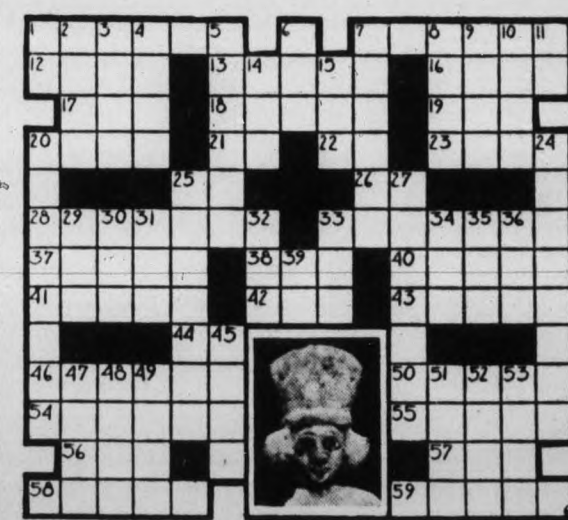

Answer: I commend this letter to the careful consideration of all mothers of adolescent daughters because it contains a terrible warning for those women who, in trying to be good mothers, so overplay the part that they are the worst mothers in the world.

No doubt the mother of the woman who writes this letter was a conscientious woman who was doing what she thought to be the right thing by her daughter in denying her all the pleasures of youth. No doubt she thought she was keeping her daughter safe by not letting her have dates with boys, or dance, or go to any place of amusement.

But the result of her strictness did not quench in the girl her love of fun, or her desire for excitement and going places and having good times. Nor did it turn her into an Alce-sit-by-the-fire, who was content to spend her evenings at home doing crochet or reading an improving book, with only Mamma and Papa for company, while all the other youngsters were dancing and going to the movies and enjoying themselves.

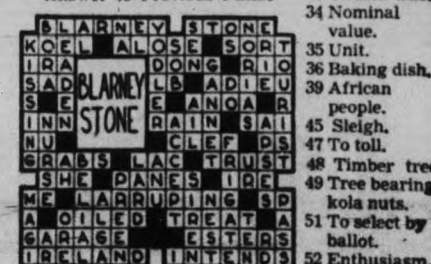

DOROTHY DIX.

Launch Party Safe

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia police today said the occupants of a launch, found adrift off Sechart, B.C., 40 miles north of here on the Gulf of Georgia, were safe ashore.

Reports reaching here said Alex W. Morris, Vancouver, owner of the launch, and two passengers had landed at Gower Point, near Sechart, and that the vessel had dragged its anchor in a heavy wind.

The boat was nearly full of water when found and towed to Sechart.

One of the passengers with Morris when he left here was Bill Edwards, also of Vancouver. The name of the other passenger was not known here.

In Greek law courts, speakers were timed by water clocks.

TRAIN PLUNGES THROUGH WASHED-OUT BRIDGE—Rising flood waters in the Quebec district washed away a railroad bridge near Portneuf and caused the tragic accident pictured above. The train was a Canadian Pacific night express on its way to Quebec from Montreal. On striking the bridgeless gap caused by the flood the express plunged 60 feet, killing the engineer and fireman and slightly injuring a number of passengers. Note how one coach has almost spanned the gorge, how the rails hang like ribbons on the bank.

DOWN THE GANGWAY

542 ON BOARD

There were 542 passengers all told aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Canada when she docked at 8 this morning from the Orient via Hawaii.

Capt. William T. Kinley reported a fair-weather voyage with some fog off the coast. The first class list totaled 150, with a similar number in the tourist class and the balance in the third and steerage.

The mail for Victoria and Vancouver amounted to 724 bags.

Those disembarking here for transfer to the United States via Seattle included 70 members of a Chinese student party.

The Empress of Canada cleared at 10 this morning for Vancouver. She will return to Esquimalt next Friday to be drydocked for overhaul.

REUNION AT DOCK

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Lillio had a homecoming celebration on board the liner Empress of Canada today.

It was just as thrilling for his mother and sister, Beatrice, who made a special trip from Seattle to meet the ship.

"It is eight years since I saw my boy," said Mrs. Lillio as she waved frantically to Stuart on the promenade deck.

"I was only 12 when my brother went to Japan," chimed in Beatrice, who is now 20 and pretty.

Stuart, whose father was the late Capt. Roy Lillio, well-known tug operator of Seattle, was educated at the University of Washington. He went to Japan when he was 21 and became associated with the editorial staff of the Japan Advertiser.

"I am through with the Advertiser now, but I expect to go back to the Far East," said Mr. Lillio as he prepared to go ashore. He was married three years ago in Shanghai, his wife being the former Helen Iglehart of Ohio.

GOING TO SPROAT

Bryant Cooper, son of Dr. C.B. Cooper, well known Honolulu physician and owner of the former island home of Cornelius Vanderbilt in the centre of Sproat Lake, reached Victoria with his wife by the Empress of Canada today.

They came ashore here and plan to drive to Sproat Lake over the Island Highway for a holiday.

HAWAII RANGER

Wearing the trim dark green uniform of the U.S. forest ranger patrol, Ralph Shaver of Salisbury, North Carolina, reached here today by the Empress of Canada from Honolulu.

He left the boat here to proceed south via Seattle.

He has been stationed in the Hawaii National Park, which consists of two separate tracts known as Kilauea-Mauna on the island of Hawaii, 219 square miles in extent, and 26 square miles of Haleakala on Maui. Each section of the park, said Ranger Shaver, is named after the volcano that is its outstanding feature.

Kilauea crater, with its fire pit Halemauiau, has been active about once a year since 1924. Mauna Loa, which erupts about once every four years, has poured out more lava during the last century than any other known volcano in the world.

WITH SHANGHAI POLICE

T. E. Wilkinson, who has been serving with the Shanghai Municipal Police, returned from China by the Empress of Canada with Mrs. Wilkinson today.

CREW RETURNS

Capt. J. Barlow and the crew of the Victoria tug Burrard Chief, which went ashore and was partly submerged last week off the south end of Texada Island, has returned to the city from Vancouver, where the vessel is now in drydock.

Burrard Chief sustained considerable water and oil damage and her pilothouse was knocked off by the pounding on the rocks.

H. Vogel, a German importer and exporter, of Kobe, Japan, reached Victoria today by the Empress of Canada and is hurrying overland to sail from New York for his home in Berlin.

He said business in Japan was very dull, due to the war. He will be away from the Orient indefinitely.

Around the Docks

The crew of the British freighter Pilot, which is stowing lumber here for Montreal, has had enough of the Spanish civil war. The ship was at Barcelona last March during the heavy bombing there and they are hoping that the Pilot will not be ordered to the Spanish coast after she has completed her present charter.

Although the Pilot was in the thick of a bombardment from the air while she was moored in Barcelona harbor, she fortunately escaped the fate of other British vessels sunk while discharging at Spanish ports in recent months.

After her experience in the Spanish war zone the Pilot proceeded to Russian ports on the Black Sea and then doubled back to Boston, Mass., where she loaded scrap for Kamaiishi, Japan.

Capt. W. H. Millar is the vessel's skipper. The steward, J. G. Natten, is a North Shields man, who made inquiries about R. Spouse of R. Spouse & Sons Ltd., fish curers, an old friend. They had a reunion aboard the Pilot today.

ENTERPRISE HERE

Lying over at the Canadian National docks for the Labor Day holiday, Ms. Pacific Enterprise, Capt. J. Isdale, of the Furber (Pacific) Line, commenced unloading and loading this morning.

She was due to get away late this afternoon for Vancouver.

Passengers arriving by the Enterprise included Mrs. Davidson and Miss De Watterville, of Manchester, Eng., proceeding to Vancouver; Miss A. M. Price of San Francisco; Messrs. Hunt and R. J. Perry, also of Manchester; Mr. and Mrs. Muzzy of Los Angeles; and Miss Pearl Dunn, a round-trip passenger from San Francisco.

The Enterprise discharged 250 tons of bananas, citrus fruits and general and stowed here 2,500 cases of canned loganberries and 200,000 feet of lumber for the United Kingdom.

TRAVEL HEAVY

Travel by water over Labor Day was unusually heavy with two special excursion boats operating between here and Vancouver and loaded ferries plying to Port Angeles for the salmon derby.

Ss. Princess Victoria carried 350 Victorians to Vancouver yesterday and Ss. Princess Adelaide brought a similar number here from the mainland.

500-Pound Shark

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. (CP)—Arne Greenland, Lulu Island fisherman, caught a 500-pound fish yesterday in the Fraser River but was far from pleased with his catch.

The fish was a mud shark and fishermen claim an acid slime given off by the fish destroys the net in which it is caught.

Greenland required the assistance of two other fishermen to tow his net and the large catch to the Salmon King, a packing company collection boat.

Pilots' Lookout

Empress of Canada, arrived at Rithet docks from the Orient, 8 a.m.; sailed for Vancouver 10 a.m. Nela, due William Head from London, 1 p.m.

Pacific Enterprise, left Canadian National docks for Vancouver, 2:30 p.m.

LANDSLIDE CRUSHES HOUSE—Hundreds of tons of earth and rock, loosened by a heavy rain, suddenly slid down upon a four-story apartment house in St. Gregoire, Quebec, splintered the building as seen in the photo above, buried four residents alive and injured a dozen others. Almost miraculously, two infants—one of them only one day old—escaped unharmed. Their mothers were found dead in the wreckage. The building was inhabited by textile workers.
